Now for the greatest of all days—Francis Day.

At noon Wednesday the Board of Education decided to close the schools in celebration of the last day of the World's Fair, that the 75,000 children and 2000 teachers might attend the Exposition to celebrate the day in honor of the achievements of President Francis in building the greatest of World's Fairs.

All offices in the federal building save the secret service and postoffice inspector's, will close. The closing of municipal offices and courts has been already announced.

Admission to the World's Fair will be free on Francis Day to all persons unable to pay. This ruling has been made for the benefit of the inmates of charitable institutions and the city's poor, and persons admitted under this rule must show credentials from some charitable or public institution of standing. For instance, persons bearing letters from such institutions as the St. Louis Provident Association, the St. Vincent de Paul Society and the United Hebrew Charities will be admitted free, as will inmates of the poor house and beneficiaries of other municipal charities.

The troops at Jefferson Barracks will not participate in the parade, Major General Bates having ruled that, inasmuch as it is not a military parade, the troops are scarcely needed. The executive committee arranging the program for the day, are anxious to express the Fair's appreciation for the hearty co-operation which the Fair has enjoyed from the troops at the barracks throughout the Fair, has announced that, inasmuch as the troops are not to attend the Fair in a body on Francis Day, the courtesy of free admission will be extended to all who come in uniform accompanied by an officer.

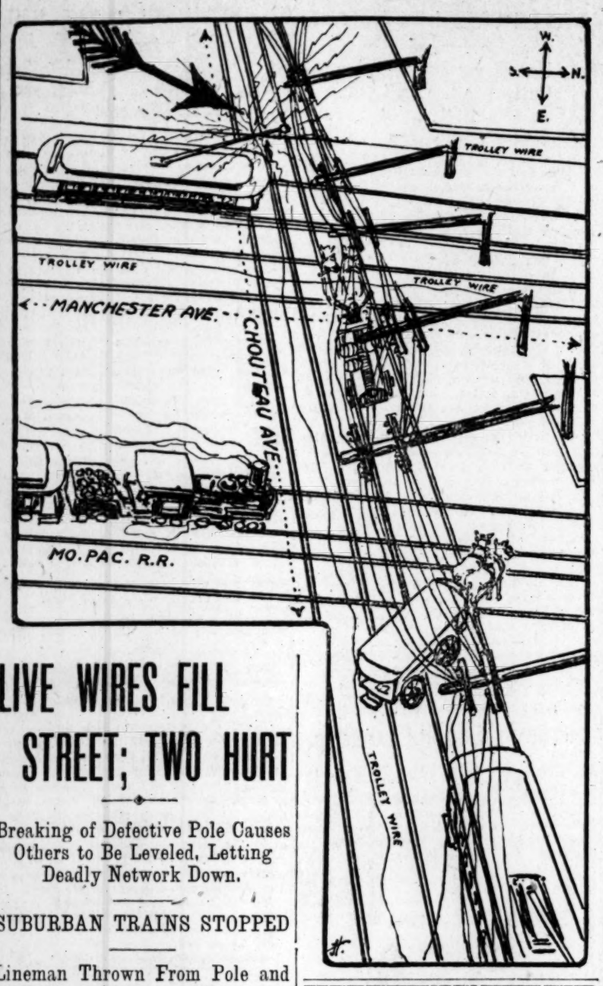

In obedience to the proclamations of Mayor Wells and Gov. Dockery, the resolutions of the Business Men's League, of the Merchants' Exchange, the St. Louis Cicaring House and other institutions, a general cessation of business is assured and, regardless of weather, there will be an immense attendance at the Fair to celebrate the day in honor of the achievements of President D. R. Francis in building the greatest of World's Fairs.

Many of the largest downtown stores will close. Real estate offices, insurance offices, the stock exchange, retail and wholesale stores and factories will close for the day to assist in the celebration.

The Board of Education is expected to

Arrow Shows Where the First Pole Broke, Pulling Down Long Line of Poles

LIVE WIRES FILL STREET; TWO HURT

Breaking of Defective Pole Causes Others to Be Leveled, Letting Deadly Network Down.

SUBURBAN TRAINS STOPPED

Lineman Thrown From Pole and Drivers of Brewery Wagons Struck by Cables.

The breaking of one defective pole supporting 24 heavy power cables of the United Railways Co. on Tiffany avenue at 7:35 o'clock Wednesday morning led to the levelling of other cable and trolley wire poles for a distance of three blocks on Chouteau avenue, the massing of a large number of live wires on the street and the serious injury of two men.

The wreckage is spread along Tiffany and Chouteau avenues from 300 feet south of Chouteau to the corner of Chouteau and Manchester avenues. A dozen large timber poles, erected to support the weight of electric feed, light and telephone wires, are broken off 8 feet from the ground, and twice as many iron trolley poles are bent until their tops almost reach the ground.

Of the two men injured, George Campbell, a United Railways lineman, who was at the top of the pole which first broke, was thrown to the ground and badly hurt about the back. He was taken to St. John's Hospital, and is in a serious condition. Fred Helfrich, driver of a beer wagon, was struck by falling feed wires at the Missouri Pacific tracks, which he was crossing, and several of his ribs were broken. He was taken to the City Hospital.

This morning a force of linemen was set to work straightening out and tautening the feed cables, which were strung along timber poles about the size of telephone poles. A tackle was rigged up on the ground, some 300 feet south of Chouteau avenue, and Campbell was stationed at the top of a pole near that point to direct the tension on the wires.

A large force of men hauled away at the tackle ropes, which were gripped to the wire just south of the pole on which Campbell sat. The power they exerted was very great.

Suddenly the pole holding Campbell snapped, broke off about ten feet from the ground, and threw Campbell several feet.

At the same time the heavy cables, unsupported at that point and still under the terrific strain imposed by the linemen, dropped.

Their jerking weight snapped another pole near Chouteau avenue; then snapped the heavy guy wires which held the larger pole at the intersection of the two streets and broke that pole.

The terrific weight thus freed exerted its force to the westward then, and as each of the supporting poles felt the shock it gave way, snapped off and fell.

Not until poles had been broken as far west as Manchester avenue was there enough of the wire on the ground for the destroying weight to be taken from the remaining supports.

In falling the poles and cables carried with them the trolley poles and wires for the entire distance, and mingled all the wreckage in a tangled and dangerous mass. The destruction was as complete as though a tornado had whirled its way along the track.

As soon as possible the street railway and electric light companies shut off the power on that circuit, and linemen came to cut the dangerous wires.

Traffic on the Missouri Pacific railroad was stopped until the right of way could be cleared, and Chouteau avenue cars were sent around by Vandeventer avenue.

The Missouri Pacific accomodation train from Kirkwood and Webster Groves was just crossing Vandeventer avenue when the first telegraph pole broke. Seeing the trouble ahead the engineer stopped the train just before driving into a network of wires as other poles fell.

Frisco suburban trains were also delayed.

HE DECLARES WIFE BEAT HIM

Oswald B. Wittler, a blacksmith, in a petition for divorce filed in Circuit court Wednesday afternoon, alleges that his wife whipped him on several occasions, and subjected him to other indignities equally as severe.

The couple were married Sept. 5, 1904, and separated Nov. 30, or today, according to the petition. They live at 1351 South Sixth street.

While he remained at home, Wittler avers, his wife, Tina, was fond of running around, and this, coupled with the several chastisements he declares he recieved, made life unbearable for him.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 30.—Dr. L. S. Chadwick, husband of Cassie L. Chadwick, around whom so many sensations have developed in the last few days, it was ascertained today, is a close kinsman of Admiral Chadwick, one of the heroes of Manila Bay when Dewey destroyed the Spanish fleet. The Chadwicks are one of the oldest and most respected families of Cleveland, and they have always had a high standing in the community.

Dr. Chadwick's father came here about 35 years ago from Pennsylvania, where he owned land of which big oil wells were struck, and which made him a man of considerable wealth. Soon after he came here he built the mansion at 1824 Euclid avenue which has figured so prominently in the tremendous exploits of Mrs. Chadwick. The residence is somewhat out of date and old-fashioned in its exterior appearance now, but since the advent of the second Mrs. Dr. Chadwick its interior furnishings have been of the most gorgeous and dazzling.

The elder Chadwicks were very peculiar and eccentric people and were noted for their simple method of living although they occupied a home which, in their day was considered very imposing. Both the old people died years ago and Dr. Chadwick, who is between 45 and 50 years of age, has occupied the homestead almost constantly since.

Dr. Chadwick's Standing Excellent.

Dr. Chadwick has been a physician in high standing in Cleveland for about 20 years. He was noted for the excellence of his work and he enjoyed a very large practice among the best families of the city. He made a specialty of the study of insanity and was considered an expert in this line. He was known as a man in very comfortable circumstances.

One hobby of his was philantropic work among the poorer classes. In a certain large Bohemian district of the city he was a familiar figure and treated many poor families for years free of charge. He had many fine traits of character, being kind-hearted, generous, quiet and unassuming. He looked after his own affairs closely, but some of his friends considered him to be of such an easy going nature that he would be easy picking for a person of a more forceful character than his own.

During the last few years he has not been in good health and has traveled much with his only daughter by his first wife. He was first married over 20 years ago to a Miss Howard, who was a member of an excellent Cleveland family. She died 10 or 12 years ago and he lived with his daughter in the old homestead until he married the present Mrs. Chadwick, eight years ago. He has been but little in Cleveland during the past two years, traveling almost continually. He is now said to be in Europe with his daughter. He has practically abandoned his fine practice.

The circumstances under which he met Mrs. Hoover, who is his present wife, are not known to acquaintances, but the marriage at the time caused much surprise, as the woman was entirely unknown to anyone in the doctor's set. Since the sensational revelations of the last week, the affair has been a seven days' wonder to all of his former friends and acquaintances.

Lavished Money on Home and Friends.

It was not long after Mrs. Chadwick took possession of the doctor's house that she transformed it from a simple, wholesome, homelike abode to a gorgeous palace, every feature of which during the last three or four years betokened unlimited wealth and resources. The house was crowded with rare and costly articles and furnishings gathered from the four quarters of the globe.

Mrs. Chadwick spent money like a multi-millionaire and she was the hostess of many lavish entertainments. The house became famous as the home of wealth and luxury. A visit to the residence suggested nothing so much as a chanter from the Arabian Nights. The general effect of the whole place was one of oriental splendor and guests at the house never ceased to marvel at the wonders which it contained.

It seemed that Mrs. Chadwick possessed a veritable mania for spending money and when not using it for luxuries for her own home she was scattering it with a prodigal hand in other ways. She showered her friends with costly gifts and favors. She traveled half her time and always left a golden trail. In the last year she is known to have secured a sum total of $200,000 from hard-headed and conservative bankers and business men upon her unsecured notes.

STEPFATHER'S KISS NOT ACTIONABLE

Girl of 14 Fails to Get Warrant Against Over-Affectionate Head of Family.

WIFE EQUALLY OFFENDED

But Man Said He Couldn't Help It, and Prosecutor Refused Application.

"Mr. Attorney, my stepfather kissed me; I want a warrant."

Pretty Prudence Hunt, 14 years old, of 1523 Gano avenue, with her mother, Mrs. Mary E. Chrismer of the same address, stood before Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Dalton in the warrant office at the Four Courts.

Newton Chrismer of 2040 Obear avenue, the accused stepfather, stood behind.

Prudence is employed as a nurse at a private hospital at Grand and Obear avenues. Her mother and step-father are separated.

"He kissed you, did he?" inquired Mr. Dalton, waiting to hear the balance of the story.

"Yes, sir," replied the girl. "He came to the hospital where I work Tuesday night and asked to see me. I went to the door and he grabbed me in his arms and kissed me before I had a chance to say a word."

"Didn't you want him to kiss you?" asked the assistant prosecuting attorney.

"Of course she didn't," screamed Mrs. Chrismer. "I'm his wife. What business has he kissing my daughter?"

"How did you come here?" said Mr. Dalton to Chrismer.

"I heard that she was going to ask for a warrant and I thought I'd explain," said Chrismer.

"I went to see the girl about going to an entertainment. When I saw her she looked so pretty that I couldn't help kissing her."

"All right, you may go."

The three left the warrant office together.

Mrs. Chrismer called back that she would be back if Chrismer should ever do such a thing again.

POLICE KEPT THE OVERCOAT

Restaurant Patron Caught Alleged Thief, but Coat Is Held as Evidence.

Charles B. Goodlett, 31 years old, of 28 South Third street, is held by the police on the charge of stealing an overcoat while the owner was eating. The complainants are C. A. Compton, proprietor of a restaurant at 220 North Seventh street, and E. R. Bright of 1933 Arsenal street, owner of the coat.

Bright was eating in the restaurant Tuesday at 5 o'clock when it is alleged Goodlett left, taking Bright's overcoat. Compton and Bright began a chase down Seventh street to Pine, then east to Sixth street, followed by a crowd yelling "Stop thief!" At Sixth and Pine streets Goodlett ran into the arms of a policeman. Bright's overcoat has held as evidence and he was forced to go to his home without it.

These Two Girls Are Missing From Homes and Brother's Clothing Is Gone.

KANAWHA FLOYD AND LULU MEYERS

MAY FIND GIRL IN BROTHER'S CLOTHES

Missing Girls Believed to Have Gone With Idea of Becoming Actresses.

With $8 between them their joint wages at a department store, Kanawha Floyd and Lulu Meyers, 14-year-old girls, have gone from their homes with the suspected purpose of becoming actresses.

A quantity of clothing belonging to a brother of Lulu Meyers also is missing, which leads to the further hypothesis that one or both of them may have donned masculine attire, the better to avoid capture and succeed in their undertaking.

The girls disappeared Monday morning. It was presumed that they had gone to their place of employment, but they did not appear there and have not been seen since by relatives.

Kanawha Floyd has been living with her mother at 1824 Menard street and Lulu Meyers' home has been with her parents at 1230 Hickory street.

The mother of the Meyers girl is sick and her father is making every effort to find her, so as to relieve the anxiety of his wife.

The Meyers girl has blue eyes, light hair and complexion, and wore on leaving home, a blue waist, blue military coat and blue felt hat. Miss Floyd wore a black skirt, red and white waist and black felt hat.

THIS WIFEBEATER WORE DIAMONDS

Man Who Struck His Wife With Revolver in Vernon Avenue Home Fined $50.

George W. Blatterman of 5153 Vernon avenue was fined $50 and costs in the Dayton street Police Court Wednesday morning for striking his wife on the head with the butt of a revolver during a quarrel at the supper table in their home Sunday evening.

Mrs. Blatterman, stylishly dressed in black, with a large picture hat and heavily veiled, testified reluctantly against her husband; Blatterman, wearing diamonds and thoroughly sorry, was called to the witness stand, but made neither a denial nor an admission of the charge. He said:

"My wife is the best and noblest woman that ever lived. I will not deny a word she has said, or try to impeach her testimony."

Then he began to weep bitterly and was excused.

Mrs. Blatterman said her husband began drinking Sunday and at the supper table she chided him for it. A quarrel arose and he struck her. She called a policeman.

"I had advised him to stop drinking," she said. "He paid no attention to the advice. I would do anything to better his condition, and do not want to take this step, but felt compelled to do so."

Mrs. Blatterman said the blow was painful, but she showed no marks from it in court.

Judge Pollard held a long conversation with Blatterman and Mrs. Blatterman before taking action, and then announced his decision.

Both Blatterman and his wife were very handsomely dressed. Mrs. Blatterman displayed no jewels, but her husband wore a beautiful diamond ring, with a stone of rare size and brilliancy.

GANTT MAY LEAVE THE BENCH

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Nov. 30.—Judge Gantt at noon today made the following statement:

"The dispatch sent from this city last night to a newspaper in regard to the resignation of Judge James B. Gantt from the Supreme Court was, to say the least, premature and unauthorized."

Judge Gantt admitted that he was considering retirement from the bench and resuming the practice of the law, but said the statement that he contemplated a partnership with Sterling P. Bond was wholly untrue.

The truth is that Judge Gantt has under consideration a partnership with former Circuit Judge Henry W. Bond of St. Louis and the other Bonds name crept into the story through care[illegible]atever course he finally conclude[illegible]ursue would be announced in a very short time.

LEITER INDICTED BUT WARRANT NOT YET SERVED

State's Attorney, Who Retires From Office, Left the Case to His Successor, Who Was Inducted Into Office Today.

ONLY ZIEGLER CASUALTY IS MACHINE GUNNER

Burned His Neck While Firing at a Farmer's Boy Who Had Treed a Coon Within Range From the Stockade.

By Robert N. Pearson,
Staff Correspondent of Post-Dispatch.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

DUQUOIN, Ill., Nov. 30.—It was learned this morning that indictments were returned Nov. 12 by the Perry County grand jury, sitting at Pinckneyville, against Joseph Leiter and Henry R. Platt, his attorney and personal representative. Each indictment embraces three counts. The first count charges them with having feloniously taken men, under armed guard, through Perry County on their way to Zeigler. The second charges them with having hired armed guards for the same purpose. The third charges them with advising, aiding and abetting the hiring of armed guards and the transportation of men under guards.

The penalty, under the law, for a conviction, under either count, is a penitentiary sentence or from one to five years with no alternative of fine.

Capiases have been ordered, but as yet have not been issued.

In explaining the delay State's Attorney Pope of Duquoin stated that he had been too busy on account of closing the affairs of his office, his term expiring today. As a consequence, the matter of issuing the capiases will go over to the new administration, which is Republican, while the retiring state's attorney, Pope, is a Democrat.

When the fact that the indictments had been returned for nearly three weeks without service was known in Duquoin, there was a great deal of criticism on account of the dilatory manner in which the case has been handled and there were charges of favoritism freely made.

As a net result of the claims of the Leiter people that hundreds of shots have been fired from ambush on the town of Ziegler there has been but one casualty outside of the killing of a miner on a train outside of the town.

The one exception is that of Supt. C. C. Whittier of the Ziegler Coal Co., who was severely burned about the neck while operating one of the machine guns which was being fired on a supposed ambuscade.

Statements as to the amount of firing from the woods surrounding the town are widely different. Attorney Platt of the Leiter forces claims that hundreds of shots have been fired on the town, while others say equally positively that the shooting has been scattered, and that the Leiter people have done all the firing. Whenever a shot has been heard at night the searchlight on the top of the water tower would be thrown on the woods and a general fusillade from machine guns and rifles would take place.

An amusing incident occurred last week that brought out the Leiter rifles and machine guns. A farmer boy, named Moses Johnson, was coon hutning in the woods near Ziegler. His dog treed a coon and the boy built a fire, while he chopped down the tree. As the tree fell the boy fired with his shotgun. Immediately the machine guns at Ziegler got busy. Johnson was much surprised at the excitement his shot caused, and lost no time in getting out of range.

W. T. Morris, member of the executive committee of the miners' union, in charge of the strike, ridicules the pistol duel, which Attorney Platt claims to have taken place between himself and the former superintendent of the Leiter properties on one side and strikers firing from a church near Plumfield last week.

"That church is not over 200 feet from the road where Platt claims the shots were fired," he says. "If many shots were fired at the men and buggy at such short range it would be almost an impossibility for all of the shots to miss both men and the horse."

The story to the effect that a bushel of empty shells were found in the wood and that a blood-stained trail was discovered is not taken seriously. The miners claim that if shells were found, they had been placed there by the company agents for the purpose of conveying a bad impression against the union.

Attorney Platt was away from Ziegler this morning and it is supposed that he has gone for more man to be brought in this afternoon.

WILL ASK COURT TO LET FILIPINOS STAY

Habeas Corpus Proceedings Planned in Effort to Keep Igorrotes and Moros Here.

The question whether the "wild" Philippine natives at the World's Fair are wards of the government and are obliged to submit to being returned to their homes is to be tested by habeas corpus proceedings in the federal courts.

Mark L. Evans, manager of the Filipino Midgets, and his brother, E. B. Evans of Des Moines, Ia., who is an attorney, served notice on Chairman Lawshe of the Philippine Exposition Board Wednesday that habeas corpus proceedings would be begun on behalf of 12 Igorrotes and 10 Moros who want to remain in the United States.

The decision to appeal to the courts follows the failure of negotiations which have been in progress between Mark Evans and Chairman Lawshe. Mr. Evans proposed to keep the natives in this country for a year, pay them the same wages as they are receiving now, feed and clothe them and give them three hours' schooling each day.

Evans says the natives want to stay, and he is borne out by the statements of the natives, made through their interpreters. The Moros have petitioned the board to be permitted to stay.

Chairman Lawshe says the proceedings will be fought to the limit, and if the departure of the natives, which is planned for next Wednesday, is delayed by the proceedings, damages will be sued for. He says the natives are not familiar enough with conditions in this country to be permitted to remain.

Evans says he wants to get a decision in time not to delay the departure of the natives.

He says the only contracts the natives have entered into have been with agents of the government, and that the Moros have no contracts with anybody now at the Exposition.

Fabian, the interpreter of the Moros, says the 12 Moros are determined to stay, if they have to forcibly resist deportation.

Among those who want to stay the best known are Antero of the Igorrotes and Sultan Amudugainlu and Sungud of the Moros.

FRANCIS DAY WILL BE WARM

Francis Day at the World's Fair will be graced by perfect late fall weather Thursday, such as comes to St. Louis on the first day of December only once in a dozen years, according to the report from the local weather bureau.

It will not be as cold as Wednesday, and the winds will not be as chilling.

The forecast: "Fair tonight and Thursday; warmer Thursday; variable winds, becoming southerly."

Tuesday night St. Louis experienced the coldest temperature of the present season, the thermometer registering 26 in the downtown district.

In sections where the wind was unobstructed by tall buildings the unofficial record of temperature is 23 degrees.

Throughout the interior of the country cold and fair weather prevails. Snow covers the Upper Mississippi valley.

Missouri Farmer Ends Life.

WEST PLAINS, Mo., Nov. 30.—Thomas W. Brower, a prominent farmer, committed suicide at his home near here by shooting with a shotgun. Financial troubles and ill-health are said to have been the cause.

IF YOU KNEW

as much as we do as to the difference between witch hazel and Pond's Extract you would never use witch hazel. You would have no confidence in the dealer who tells you "it is just as good and much cheaper."

The reason for its cheapness is shown by recent analyses of witch hazel purchased in St. Louis, which in nearly every instance contained poisonous wood alcohol.

Pond's Extract has been the standard of quality for sixty years. It is bottled by the manufacturers, and is never sold in bulk. No chance for adulteration there. It's an unfailing remedy for rheumatic pain, stiff joints, neuralgia, sore throat, and many other ills that flesh is heir to. Ask for it and be sure you get it.

GENTLEMAN OF "BLUFFS" BEATEN IN LONE HOME

Mystery Surrounds Attack on Dweller on a Hilltop Near Kimmswick, Who Wore Costly Jewels.

WAS MOTIVE ROBBERY OR DISFIGUREMENT?

Staggering to Neighbor's Home After Long Unconsciousness, Speechless Man Wrote Brief Account of His Injuries.

Men are hunting around Kimmswick, Mo., for the assailants who struck down Frederick L. Drake, the "Gentleman of the Bluffs," as he is called Tuesday night and left him for dead on the floor of his home, on the hilltop, to the north of Montesano Park.

Drake may never be able to tell by spoken words what he knows of the murderous attack on him. He is lying at Alexian Brothers' Hospital on South Broadway, with his lower jaw and the lower part of his face so badly crushed and hacked that his recovery is doubtful, and even if he recovers he may not be able to articulate again.

There are mysterious features of the case which cause city and county authorities to conjecture that some motive other than robbery may have prompted the infliction of the terrible injuries which Drake received.

Disfigurement seems to have been an object as well as injury, since the blows rained on him with a hatchet or other edged tool all fell on his face.

It is due to the man's great vitality that he did not die alone where he fell when he was struck down as he hospitably opened his door in answer to a knock. He revived an hour after his assailants had gone, and staggered to the home of Michael Tierney, his nearest neighbor, who took him to the hospital, a night drive of nearly 20 miles.

As strange to the Kimmswick folk as the crime is the victim of it. Three or four years ago Frederick L. Drake came to live in the house on the hilltop, alone. He was a man 45 years old, over 6 feet in height and weighing 225 pounds. He had the accent and the manners of a Southern gentleman. He was not secretive, and the people among whom he had come to live learned that his home had been in the past at Natchez, Miss., where he owned a plantation. His wife had died there ten years ago, and as no children were born to them and he could not bear to remain where everything suggested his bereavement, he went to Kansa. He came to St. Louis seven years ago. But he did not like the city. He longed for the freedom of country life. The picturesque Kimmswick bluffs attracted his attention, and he bought a farm there and went to live in the two-story frame house.

He hired two men of the neighborhood to work on the farm, but they did not stay there at night.

It was evident that he had means. His house was furnished with considerable elegance. He had a piano, on which he played with skill and accompanied himself as he sang old songs in a full, round baritone. He had an extensive library, and lived the life of a cultured country gentleman.

From the veranda of his house he could see the steamboats passing on the Mississippi. Down under the bluffs, where he could not see them, he could hear the rumble of the Iron Mountain trains, and that was as near to the busy life as he cared to get.

He delighted to have visitors to his house on the hill, and there was rare entertainment there for those to whom his fancy turned.

He kept every sort of stock and poultry, and every quadruped and fowl about the place was a pet.

After the Kimmswick folk had learned enough about him to satisfy their curiosity, they accepted him as one of them, but they never could understand why a man of the Southland should be content to abide on the bluff-top, where it is bleak and cold when the north wind blows.

His Diamonds Caused Wonder.

They never ceased to marvel at the diamonds he wore. There were a stud, a solitaire ring and another ring with a diamond in the center, an emerald and a ruby. He wore them always, and only laughed when it was suggested that they might tempt robbers.

There is a heavy grade below the bluff on which Drake's house is, and as northbound freight trains always climbed it slowly, it has been a favorite place for tramps to jump on and off of the trains. They have learned that there is hospitality for such as they at the house on the hill and by day and night they have knocked at the door of Drake's house and been fed.

Two weeks ago St. Louis friends of Drake went down to hunt with him for a few days. They were sitting before the fireplace at 8 o'clock Sunday evening, and the St. Louis man was telling Drake that he ought not to stay in the house alone at night. But Drake, proud of his strength, said he was not afraid.

There was a knock at the door and Drake swung it open. The St. Louis man took a position by the fireplace, where he could get a good look at the visitor. It was a big, rough-looking fellow with black eyes who stood there, and somehow he did not look like a tramp. Seeing that there were two in the house the fellow asked for food, but did not seem disappointed when Drake told him that he and his friend had cleaned out everything in the house on their return from their hunting that day, and he slunk away in the darkness.

"I don't like the looks of that fellow or the way he acted," said the St. Louis friend, but Drake only laughed.

It was 7:30 o'clock Tuesday night and Drake was alone, sitting before the fireplace in the lounging room of his home. There was a knock at the door and Drake opened it. A man sprang out of the darkness at him with an edged weapon of some kind in each hand, hacking viciously at Drake's face. Drake grappled with the man and there was a terrific struggle around the room. Drake was more powerful than his assailant and he was fighting for his life, but he had only his bare hands to match against the weapons of his adversary. The man continued to hack at Drake's jaws and the lower part of his face and at last, from sheer pain, Drake sank unconscious to the floor.

An hour later he revived and staggered to the home of Michael Tierney and staggered fainting into the house.

"Robbery," he wrote on a piece of paper, for he could not talk, and in a few other written sentences he told the main facts of what had occurred.

The local physician who was called found that the lower jaw of Drake had been literally shattered and his face hacked with the corner of a dull-edged weapon in a score of places. At his suggestion, Tierney immediately placed Drake in a vehicle and drove 19 miles with him to the hospital in St. Louis.

When Drake was asked Wednesday about his diamonds and other valuables, he shook his head, causing the belief that he did not know whether they had been taken.

PHYSICIAN'S GOOD LUCK

Dr. Hart's Fortunate Experience of Special Interest to Many in St. Louis.

The happiest man in New England today, and one who is receiving congratulations from his friends, is Dr. Pailip Z. Hart of Laconia, N. H.

For years he has suffered with catarrh in its worst form.

Although he resorted to the latest scientific treatment, and consulted many of his brother physicians, Dr. Hart finally said, "I might just as well have thrown my money in the river, for I grew worse and worse. My wife and I will swear that Hyomei cured me of the worst case of catarrh that ever existed. I used to cough constantly at night, and had a dropping in the throat, which kept me awake a great deal. I raised thick phlegm and was in a horrible condition. However, I am entirely cured, solely through the use of "Hyomei." Wolff-Wilson Drug Co. and Judge & Dolph are the local agents for Hyomei, the famous treatment which cures catarrh without stomach dosing. A complete outfit costs but $1.00, extra bottles, 50c. They sell it under guarantee to refund the money if it does not give quick relief.

FLATS? NEVER! SAYS CABANNE

Residence Owners Incorporate to Prevent the Threatened Invasion.

The war against flats in aristocratic Raymond place in Cabanne goes merrily on.

The latest step decided upon by the property owners is to file papers of incorporation with the secretary of state and begin an active fight for the preservation of the district to residences alone.

This decision was reached by the special committee of property owners, who met Tuesday night at the residence of J. C. Jones, 5088 Raymond avenue. The territory embraced by the property owners' anti-flat organization is bounded by King's highway, Union avenue, Page boulevard and the Suburban tracks.

In this district there are building restrictions, it is alleged, which prohibit the erection of flats, and the fight will be to uphold the validity of this agreement. Counsel will be employed to resist the proposed erection of flats within the territory.

COLORADO STRIKE IS DECLARED OFF

Telluride Mine Owners Conceded All the Workingmen Demanded.

CRIPPLE CREEK TO FOLLOW

President Moyer Optimistic on the Outlook in the Afflicted State.

TELLURIDE, Colo., Nov. 30.—Both mine owners and union miners are rejoicing over the action of the District Miners' Association, in session at Ouray, ending the strike in this district, which was called Sept. 1, 1903. President Charles H. Moyer of the Western Federation of Miners has made the following statement concerning the action of the Miners' Association, which was taken in accordance with his advice:

"We have called the strike off because we take the position that the issues involved have been conceded by the mine owners and operators in the Telluride district, in that they recently posted notices to the effect that after Dec. 1 they will grant an eight-hour workday, both for their mills and smelters, and a minimum wage scale of $3. These were the demands we made over one year ago.

"I believe that within 60 days every mine and mill at Telluride and Ophir will be running to their full capacity with the best workmen in the West employed."

"What do you think will be the result of this action on the Cripple Creek situation?" Mr. Moyer was asked.

"I believe a change will occur in 60 days that will be for the betterment of the Cripple Creek situation.

"The strike may not be settled entirely in that time, but I am sure a larger number of men will be at work than at present."

$40,000 for Man's Life.

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—A verdict for $40,000 damages has been awarded in the Supreme Court to Mrs. Anna Morhard, wife of a Staten Island physician, who was killed a year ago in the cellar of his home by an electric shock. The defendant company supplied the current that illuminated Dr. Morhard's home and the suit was brought on the allegation that the transformer used to reduce the electric current before it entered the house was out of order. When the doctor touched the incandescent bulb to turn on the current, it was asserted, he received a death shock from 2400 volts.

UNITED RAILWAYS DIRECTORS DIVIDED

Some Favor Wholesale Lodging of Transit Claims, Others Prefer to Settle.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE HERE

Representative of Brown Brothers Confers With Local Members of the Directorate.

The first meeting of the new executive committee of the United Railways Co. was held Wednesday morning in the company's offices in the Security building. James Brown of Brown Bros., New York, who succeeded Eugene Delano of the same firm on the committee, was present. So were Murray Carleton, Corwin H. Spencer and James Campbell.

Mr. Carleton said after the meeting that the committee had considered only questions of policy and had taken no action looking to changes in the operation of the road.

An important question of policy which the management of the United Railways Co. has under discussion is its attitude in reference to the claims against the St. Louis Transit Co., which it has absorbed.

A few weeks ago the claim agent of the United Railways Co., formerly of the Transit company, announced that the former company would not pay claims against the latter company, as it was no longer in existence.

Brokers and financiers familiar with the inner workings of the local street railway say there is a division of sentiment among the directors of the United Railways on this question. Some are said to favor dodging the judgments against the Transit company in the manner indicated, while others are credited with preferring some kind of a compromise with each legitimate creditor.

INTERESTING, IF TRUE.

You Can Try It For Yourself and Prove It.

One grain of the active principle in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest 3,000 grains of meat, eggs or other wholesome food, and this claim has been proven by actual experiment which anyone can perform for himself in the following manner; Cut hard boiled eggs into very small pieces, as it would be if masticated, place the egg and two or three of the tablets in a bottle or jar containing warm water heated to 98 degrees (the temperature of the body) and keep it at this temperature for three and one-half hours, at the end of which time the egg will be as completely digested as it would have been in the healthy stomach of hungry boy.

The point of this experiment is that what Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will do to the egg in the bottle it will do to the egg or meat in the stomach and nothing else will rest and invigorate the stomach so safely and effectually. Even a little child can take Stuart's Tablets with safety and benefit if its digestion is weak and the thousands of cures accomplished by their regular daily use are easily explained when it is understood that they are composed of vegetable essences, aseptic pepsin, diastase and Golden Seal, which mingles with the food and digest it thoroughly, giving the overworked stomach a chance to recuperate.

Dieting never cures dyspepsia, neither do pills and cathartic medicines, which simply irritate and inflame the intestines.

When enough food is eaten and promptly digested there will be no constipation, nor in fact will there be disease of any kind, because good digestion means good health in every organ.

The merit and success of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are world wide and they are sold at the moderate price of 50 cents for full sized package in every drug store in the United States and Canada, as well as in Europe.

The question of tailoring is not the mere detail of finding "clothes for a forked radish," as Teufelsdrochk says. A man expects something more from his tailor apart from his clothing. What he expects is individual attire—personality in dress.

He expects that here, and we strongly suspect that he gets what he expects.

Ask any man going down the street on the inside of a particularly swagger 3-Button Double-Breasted Sack Suit in the new brown or gray shades, who's his tailor, and it's a dollar against a plugged Canadian dime that he will refer you to us.

Pepsin Syrup Co., Monticello, Ill.

Gentlemen:—A couple of years ago while experimenting through the South, I found that by spending part of my time in marshy neighborhoods filled with miasma, my entire system was being slowly poisoned. I had chills and fever, ached all over, lost appetite and sleep. The doctors told me that I had malaria, and quinine was prescribed. I took it for two weeks and as I kept getting worse decided to change treatment. I spoke to a friend about my condition. He said that he had some of Dr. Caldwell's (Laxative) Syrup Pepsin that he wished I would try. I used it for three days and felt better, and sent for six bottles and used them while in camp. It acted like magic in driving the poison out of my system, cleansed my blood, restored my appetite, and I am now in perfect health. I keep it on hand and find that an occasional dose keeps me well.

Very truly yours,
P. Bradford Perkins,

Any Rheumatic Sufferer may have a full dollar's worth of my remedy free

I searched the whole earth for a specific for Rheumatism—something that I or any physician could feel safe in prescribing—something that we could count on not only occasionally, but ALWAYS. For the ravages of Rheumatism are everywhere and genuine relief is rare.

After twenty years of search and experiment I learned of the chemical I now employ. And I knew then that my search and my efforts were well rewarded. For this chemical gave me the basis of a remedy which in the cure of Rheumatism is practically certain.

I don't mean that Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Cure can turn bony joints into flesh again—that is impossible. But it will drive from the blood the poison that causes pain and swelling—and then that is the end of the pain and swelling—the end of the suffering—the end of Rheumatism.

I am willing that you should prove my claims at my expense. I will gladly give you a full dollar package of Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic remedy to try. For I know that you and your neighbors and friends will by your good wishes and your good words, more than repay my initial loss.

You pay nothing--you promise nothing you risk nothing--you deposit nothing

Crystallized Poison!

You know that hard water leaves a deposit of lime in the bottom of the tea kettle in which it boils, and soft water does not. That is because soft water is filtered and contains no lime, while hard water is not filtered and is full of it.

You can imagine that if that deposit were to settle in the joint of your knee it would be extremely painful. And if the deposit grew, you could finally no longer endure the torture of walking.

Yet that is the very way that Rheumatism begins and ends. Except that the deposit which forms is not lime, but crystallized poison.

For your blood is always full of poison—the poison you eat and drink and breathe into your system. It is the purpose of the blood to absorb and carry on this very poison. And the kidneys, which are the blood filters, are expected to cleanse the blood and send it back through the system clean to gather more poison which, they, in turn, will eliminate.

But sometimes the kidneys fail. And sometime from some other cause the blood gets so full of poison that they cannot absorb it all. This is the start of Rheumatism. The poison accumulates and crystallizes. The blood carries the crystals and they increase in size. Then, when it can carry them no longer, it deposits them in a joint—on a bone—anywhere.

The twinge in your leg—the dull ache in your arm on a rainy day—these are the outward signs of the unseen crystals. And the twisted limbs and unspeakable anguish of the sufferer who has allowed his symptoms to go unheeded and unattended for years—these are the evidences of what Rheumatism neglected can do.

Rheumatism includes lumbago, sciatica, neuralgia, gout—for all these are the results of rheumatic poison in the blood.

Plainly, the first thing to do is to remove the poison. But this is not enough. The FORMATION of the poison must be stopped, so that nature may have a chance to dissolve and eliminate the crystals which have already formed. Unless this is done there can be no cure—no permanent relief.

A Certain Cure

I spent twenty years in experimenting before I felt satisfied that I had a certain remedy for this dread disease,—a remedy which would not only clean out the poison, but one which would stop its formation.

The secret lay in a wonderful chemical I found in Germany. When I found this chemical I knew that I could make a Rheumatic cure that would be practically certain. But even then before I made an announcement—before I was willing to put my name on it—I made more than 2000 tests! And my failures were but 2 per cent.

This German chemical is not the only ingredient I use in Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Cure—but it made the remedy possible—made possible an achievement which I doubt not could have been made in no other way.

This chemical was very expensive. The duty too was high. In all it cost me $4.90 per pound. But what is $4.90 per pound for a REAL remedy for the world's most painful disease?—for a REAL relief from the greatest torture human beings know?

But I do not ask you to take a single statement of mine—I do not ask you to believe a word I say until you have tried my medicine in your own home at my expense absolutely. Could I offer you a full dollar's worth free if there were any misrepresentation? Would I do this if I were not straightforward in my every claim? Could I AFFORD to do it if I were not SURE that my medicine will help you?

Simply Write Me

The offer is open to everyone, everywhere. But you must write ME for the free dollar bottle order. All druggists do not grant the test. I will then direct you to one that does. He will pass it down to you from his stock as freely as though your dollar laid before him. Write for the order today. Address Dr. Shoop, Box 9088, Racine, Wis. I will send you my book on Rheumatism beside. It is free. It will help you to understand your case. What more can I do to convince you of my interest—of my sincerity?

CURED OF DYSPEPSIA
After 33 Years of Suffering By
Eupepsia TABLETS

Many people who are victims of disease become discouraged because they have failed to find a cure, or even relief, after years perhaps of medical treatment. Is this the case with you? If so, don't give up; remember that EUPEPSIA TABLETS have cured thousands of diseased stomachs that would not yield to any other treatment. Dyspeptics who suffered the torture of indigestion and its accompanying misery of body and mind for many long years, have been cured by using three or four boxes of these tablets (at a cost of about $2.00), after spending thousands of dollars in fruitless doctoring. The following testimonial, which came to us without any solicitation on our part, is from a lady who endured the suffering incident to a weak and disordered stomach for thirty-three years. Read what she says:

"I am so thankful for the good Eupepsia Tablets have done for me. I have found in them a balm for my poor stomach. My trouble was of thirty-three years' standing, and the doctors pronounced me incurable, but your tablets have done me more good than anything I have ever taken."
MRS. M. A. O'CONNOR.
Elk City, Kan.

This case seemed indeed beyond hope, but she kept on trying, and at last hit upon the medicine she needed. EUPEPSIA TABLETS proved to be the right thing. With this example before you, what reason have YOU to be discouraged?

Begin taking them to day, and if they do not cure you it will cost you nothing.

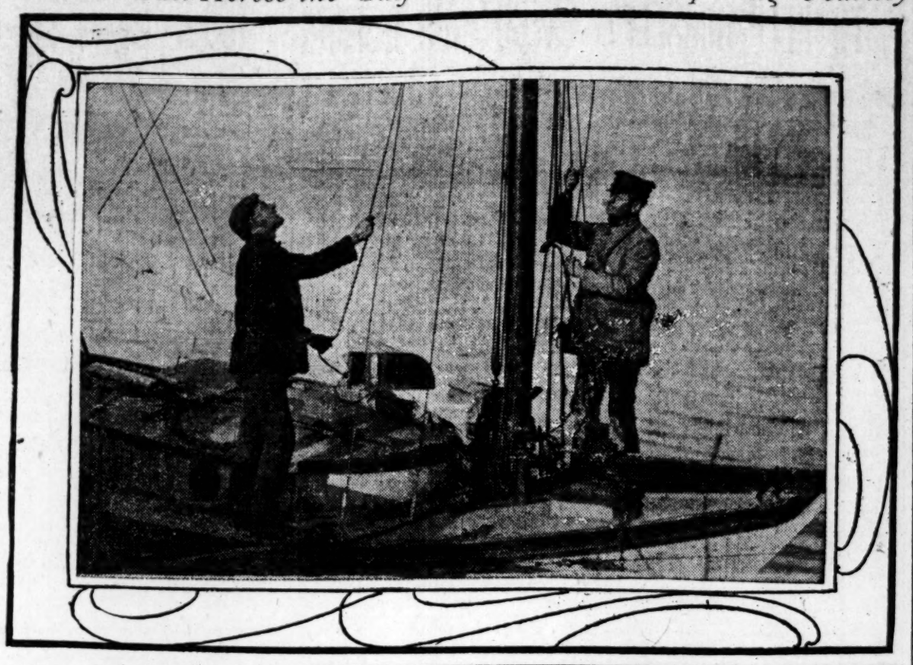

EUPEPSIA TABLETS will cure all diseases that are caused by stomach troubles, such as indigestion, dyspepsia, uneasiness after eating, nausea, foul breath, bloated stomach, heartburn, obesity, thinness, weak blood, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, sallow complexion.

In This 25-Foot Craft, the "Aztec," Two Chicago Men Will Sail Across the Gulf to Mexico on Exploring Journey

SAILING SOUTHWARD IN 25-FOOT CRAFT

Two Chicago Men Depart From St. Louis on Long Voyage to Central America.

WILL SAIL ACROSS THE GULF

Upon Arriving at State of Chipas, Mexico, the Two Mariners Will Explore Country.

"She has a heart of oak and she'll ride anything except a typhoon."

Thus spake Skipper Petersen of the trim and jaunty sloop Aztec, which left the foot of Branch street Wednesday morning, bound on a long journey by rivers, lakes and seas for the land of her namesake, Guatamala and southern Mexico.

The Aztec was built for rough seas, and swam many of them on Lake Michigan last summer. She arrived in St. Louis by way of the Illinois and Michigan canal, the Illinois and the Mississippi, and left Wednesday morning in tow of the Mary Hill.

Aboard her are H. A. Peterson and C. K. Frost, both of Hyde Park, Chicago, who built her, and know every timber and rivet in her.

Petersen was a seaman under Admiral Sampson on the Dolphin at Guantanamo and carries a medal won in picking up Spanish mines off that harbor. He is a pen and ink artist of no mean ability, and has made illustrations for many magazines since his discharge from the navy. Frost is a photographer and carries three cameras with him. They will take photographs and explore the coutnry for a Chicago company.

The "Aztec" is built sharp at both ends with a single spruce spar and a steel center board. She has a deck cabin in which are two bunks and pantries and a small oil stove. Storage room is in the bow. She is only 25 feet over all and 20 feet on the water line. She has a draft of 27 inches, is 8 feet beam, weighs one and a half tons, carries an equal amount of ballast and has 400 square feet of sail. Her beam is 8 feet 4 inches, and she is as buoyant as a cork, with a self-bailing cockpit and a steel deck. Her lines are a combination of the Swampscott dory and the lifeboat. Every timber in her except the spars is of heart oak.

Accompanying the sailors is also the dog "Pouch," a setter who has lost his rudder, for his tail went in a street car accident, but he is a good seaman, nevertheless "Pouch's" chief accomplishment, besides sailing, is fence climbing. His owners say that "Pouch" can climb a 10-foot fence in two scrambles, and show photographs of him in the act.

When the Aztec reaches New Orleans she will ship through the canal below the city into Lake Pontchartrain, sail the Rigolets and Lake Borgne and skirt the shores of the Mississippi Sound to the west coast of Florida and down to Key West. She will then cross to Havana and round the coast to Santiago, cut across to Jamaica, thence to Trinidad and across the Carribean Sea to Yucatan. She will then sail up the coast to the State of Chiapas, Mexico, where her journey ends.

LEAVES ESTATE TO RELATIVES.

Nephews and Nieces Are Remembered in Anna E. Lane's Will.

The will of Anna Ewing Lane, daughter of William Carr Lane, first mayor of St. Louis, which was filed for probate Tuesday, leaves her estate to nephews and nieces. Sarah L. Glasgow Wilson, Mary G. Branch, Anna Glasgow and Susie B. Carson, nieces, are bequeathed various pieces of property and $10,000 each. The nephews, Allen C. Glasgow, Frank A. Glasgow, William C. Glasgow and Carr Lane Glasgow, receive portions of property and $3000 each, with the exception of William C. Glasgow, who received $15,000. The homestead at 4056 Washington boulevard is left to Anna Glasgow in addition to her other bequest, the testatrix stating that $6000 was due the former as a debt.

LIFE SENTENCE FOR A BOY.

CHICAGO, Nov. 29.—Orrin Cox, 17 years old, son of respectable parents in Kensington, a suburb, has been sentenced to life imprisonment in Judge Chetlain's court on a charge of robbery.

The severe penalty was inflicted because, when committing the crime, Cox was armed with a loaded revolver.

The crime for which he was convicted was committed on Sept. 12. Cox and two companions entered a Chicago restaurant. Revolvers were displayed and the customers robbed under threats of death.

A shiny, oily, blotched face results from neglect. Satin Skin Cream is the curative remedy, 25 cents.

Suffering Women Cured

Grateful Mrs. Dawson and Mrs. Beans, Restored to Vigorous Health by Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, Heartily Recommend Its Use to All Women Who Suffer From Nervous Break-down and Heart Trouble.

MRS. A. DAWSON.
310 Pleasant Avenue,
New York City, May, 31, 1904.

For over a year I have suffered intense agony from nervous debility and prostration. I could neither eat, nor sleep and was reduced to a mere shadow. The doctors recommended various kinds of treatment, none of which helped me. They finally put me on your Malt Whiskey, and in two months it has completely restored me to health: I am able to sleep, my appetite is good and I have gained rapidly in flesh.

I am very thankful to be able to recommend your medicine to all sufferers.
Yours truly, MRS. A. DAWSON.

New Haven, Conn., April 2, 1904.

I am now 62 years of age and for a number of years have been troubled with my heart and the least excitement makes me very nervous.

Your Malt Whiskey was recommended to me four years ago, and it has been my only medicine ever since, doing me more good than all the doctors, whom I now have little use for.

I am never without a bottle and can recommend it to all nervous people or those afflicted with any heart trouble. It is truly a wonderful medicine.—MRS. LUCRETIA J. BEANS, 133 Bradley Street.

MRS. LUCRETIA J. BEANS.

WOMEN'S WOES

Many of the daily woes of womanhood are due to sick kidneys; but too many women fail to recognize kidney trouble when they have it, and kidney diseases are fatal if neglected too long.

When a woman's back aches from morning to night—

When she feels worn out after every bit of work she has to do—

When she cannot bend or stoop without suffering twinges of pain—

When she has constant headaches, dizzy spells, bearing-down pains and urinary troubles—

When she has any or all of these ailments it is a sure sign that the kidneys are not doing their duty. Uric acid and other poisons that the kidneys should filter out of the blood are carrying disease into every part of the system.

Regard this as a danger signal. Recognize the kidneys as the cause of your many aches and pains, and to cure the kidneys use a kidney medicine.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. The kidneys begin to do their work properly, and pure blood, the greatest system regulator, restores the whole body to health and strength.

Don't Neglect the Kidneys. At the First Indication of Kidney Trouble Begin Using Doan's Kidney Pills, a Modern Kidney Specific, which has cured Thousands of People Right Here at Home.

ST. LOUIS TESTIMONY.

Mrs. John Higdon of 1517 Clark avenue says: "My back ached at night so that I could scarcely turn in bed. Sometimes the twinges were so severe that I can only describe the suffering as excrutiating. I could not do any housework when the attacks were at their height, and, although I consulted physicians and took medicine, I could not check the trouble, let alone cure it. Just before I went to Wolff-Wilson's, corner Sixth and Washington avenue, for Doan's Kidney Pills, I was unable to stay in bed on account of pain in the back. You can readily understand my appreciation of the remedy when I tell you that the attack has absolutely disappeared."

Kidney diseases cause more deaths than any other human affliction. This is because they come on so silently, and are, therefore, neglected.

When the kidneys are well, they remove from the body every day nearly one ounce of uric acid and other poisonous waste.

When the kidneys are sick, this poison is carried by the blood to every part of the body. It causes rheumatism, gout, neuralgia, sciatica, gravel, stone in the kidneys, heart disease, indigestion, diabetes and Bright's disease.

Doan's Kidney Pills act promptly and give complete relief, because their influence is exerted directly upon the diseased tissues. This medicine has been curing sick kidneys for 12 years.

THOUSANDS HAVE KIDNEY TROUBLE AND DON'T KNOW IT

To Prove What Swamp-Root, the Great Kidney Remedy, will do for YOU, Every Reader of the "Post-Dispatch" May Have a Sample Bottle Sent Free by Mail.

Weak and unhealthy kidneys are responsible for more sickness and suffering than any other disease; therefore, when through neglect or other causes, kidney trouble is permitted to continue, fatal results are sure to follow.

Your other organs may need attention—but your kidneys most, because they do most and need attention first.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, because as soon as your kidneys begin to get better they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root the great kidney and bladder remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. Swamp-Root will set your whole system right, and the best proof of this is a trial.

53 COTTAGE ST., MELROSE, MASS.
JAN. 11th, 1904.

DEAR SIR:

"Ever since I was in the Army, I had more or less kidney trouble, and within the past year it became so severe and complicated that I suffered everything and was much alarmed—my strength and power was fast leaving me. I saw an advertisement of Swamp-Root and wrote asking for advice. I began the use of the medicine and noted a decided improvement after taking Swamp-Root only a short time.

I continued its use and am thankful to say that I am entirely cured and strong. In order to be very sure about this, I had a doctor examine some of my water today and he pronounced it all right and in splendid condition.

I know that your Swamp-Root is purely vegetable and does not contain any harmful drugs. Thanking you for my complete recovery and recommending Swamp-Root to all sufferers I am." Very truly yours,

I. C. RICHARDSON.

Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but it promptly cures kidney, liver and bladder troubles, the symptoms of which are—obliged to pass your water frequently night and day, smarting or irritation in passing, brickdust, or sediment in the urine, headache, backache, lame back, dizziness, poor digestion, sleeplessness, nervousness, heart disturbance due to bad kidney trouble, skin eruptions from bad blood, neuralgia, rheumatism, diabetes, bloating, irritability, wornout feeling, lack of ambition, loss of flesh, sallow complexion, or Bright's disease.

If your water, when allowed to remain undisturbed in a glass or bottle for twenty-four hours, forms a sediment or settling or has a cloudy appearance, it is evidence that your kidneys and bladder need immediate attention.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is for sale at drug stores the world over in bottles of two sizes and two prices—fifty cents and one dollar. Remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

SPECIAL NOTE—In order to prove the wonderful merits of Swamp-Root you may have a sample bottle and a book of valuable information, both sent absolutely free by mail. The book contains many of the thousands upon thousands of testimonial letters received from men and women cured. The value and success of Swamp-Root are so well known that readers are advised to send for a sample bottle. In sending your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure to say you read this generous offer in St. Louis Daily Post-Dispatch. The genuineness of this offer is guaranteed.

WHO CAN HELP BOY TO HELP HIMSELF?

How to Get Motor Chair and Help His Mother, Walter Brown's Problem.

Who can tell Walter Edwin Brown, 15 years old, irredeemably crippled, but self-educated beyond his years, how he can earn enough money to buy a motor chair and support himself.

He is sad from watching his mother toil with her needle for his support as the days come and go. His body is misshapen, and he has little use of his limbs, but he has a stout heart. He has no doubt that there is a way for one like him to make his way in the world if only he can discover it. That those who know of his ambition are at a loss for suggestions other than such as have been made and found impracticable he considers no good ground for discouragement. He argues from this that his many friends are too few. He needs more friends, because more friends will mean more suggestions.

And somebody, somewhere, he is sure, can suggest how a crippled 15-year-old boy, now useless, can make himself useful.

He has written to the Post-Dispatch an appeal for more friends with more suggestions.

Since he was 14 months old the boy has been paralyzed. His legs will not bear his weight, and his arms are not strong enough to enable him to use crutches. There is hardly anything about him unimpaired except his busy brain and his sympathetic heart. His father, who was secretary of the downtown branch of the Y. M. C. A. in St. Louis, died when the child was 18 months old. A month later a fever left the baby crippled for life. When he was 7 years old he obtained three months' schooling. His mother pushed him to the schoolhouse in his invalid's chair and carried him to his desk, and he was permitted to recite sitting, and she came in the afternoon and took him home. When he was 8 another attack of fever made his physical ruin complete. Since that he has educated himself.

He has tried selling papers, addressing envelopes and doing copying, telegraphy, typewriting and other things, but has had to give them up.

His mother took him to the World's Fair a week ago and he saw a motor chair there. It gave him new hope. If he could earn enough money to buy one, he might yet succeed in relieving his mother of the burden of his support. And now he hopes that some reader of the Post-Dispatch will suggest the way.

He lives with his mother at 509 North Sixth street, East St. Louis.

BEQUESTS AWAIT EXECUTOR'S RETURN

Robert Johnson, One of the Men Who Will Distribute Scruggs' Estate, on Atlantic.

MUCH IS GIVEN TO CHARITY

Many Personal Friends Are Also Remembered by the Late Merchant-Philanthropist.

Letters testamentary on the estate of the late Richard M. Scruggs, whose will was filed for probate Tuesday, will not be asked until the return of Robert Johnson, one of the executors, who is on the Atlantic ocean, coming home. W. Frank Carter, the other executor named, desires to wait until Mr. Johnson's arrival in St. Louis before action is taken.

The estate, which is valued at about $1,000,000, is divided into many legacies, both large and small. The property consists of stock in the Scruggs, Vandervoort & Barney Dry Goods Company, the Mississippi Valley Trust Company, the Missouri Trust Company, the Commonwealth Trust Company, much city property, including the homestead at 3517 Olive street, some property in St. Louis County, and 160 acres in mining lands in St. Francois County, Mo.

Following his lifetime custom, Mr. Scruggs bequeathed much of his estate to charities and churches. Several bishops of the Methodist Church, South, were also remembered.

The will gives to Central College at Fayette, Mo., $25,000 and the Methodist school at Fredericktown, Mo., $2500. Arthur N. Sager, newly elected circuit attorney, a close friend of Mr. Scruggs, is left $5000.

The sum of $86,000 is left to James Reeves Holt in trust for relatives of the deceased, who receive sums varying from $2000 to $40,000. Other nearer relatives and very close friends receive bequests varying from $2500 to $25,000, while the testator's brother, Gustavus A. Scruggs, receives all the estate remaining after the other legacies are provided for, which will be greatly in excess of any other bequest.

The Cook Avenue Methodist Church, South, of St. Louis, of which Mr. Scruggs was a member and in which he was prominent, receives $10,000, of which $5,000 is to be expended for a parsonage and $2000 for repairs on the church property.

To each of a number of schools and missions $5000 is left. One school receiving a bequest of this kind is the Girl's School at Horishima, Japan, conducted under the auspices of the Methodist Church. The Bethesda association of St. Louis receives $25,000, a like sum going to the Provident Association. In the work of which Mr. Scruggs was especially interested, and of which he was president for many years.

The executors of the will are given authority to sell or dispose of any real estate or personal property. The will is dated April 26, 1904, and covers 11 typewritten pages. The witnesses were Hanford Crawford and William Davidson, both of whom were present at the filing.

MISS NELLIE A. BAKER

CURED OF A DANGEROUS COUGH BY VINOL.

Druggists Wolff-Wilson Drug Co. Say Vinol Is the Best Cure for Chronic Coughs and Colds Known to Medicine.

Said Mr. Wolff of Wolff-Wilson Drug Co., "The unquestionable testimony which we are constantly publishing—our opinion so often expressed in regard to the remarkable curative value of Vinol—our guarantee to return money in every case where it fails, and, above all, the fact that it is not a patent medicine but a pure cod liver oil preparation without oil or drugs, should lead every person in St. Louis suffering from chronic coughs, colds or bronchitis to at least try Vinol in preference to anything else."

Miss Baker writes: "For more than a year I suffered with a hacking, obstinate cough from which I could get no relief. Cough medicines did me no good whatever and upset my stomach, but since taking Vinol my cough has entirely disappeared. I have gained seven pounds in weight, and I am in better health than I have been for years."

NELLIE BAKER.

The reason Vinol cures when all other cough remedies and preparations of cod liver oil fail is because it contains in a concentrated form all the curative, strength-creating elements of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cods' livers but without any oil or grease to upset the stomach and retard its work.

Mr. Wolff says: "We have never sold a medicine in our store equal to Vinol for coughs, colds, bronchitis, or to build up the run-down, tired, overworked and debilitated. It is simply a wonderful strengthener and invigorator for old people, and we ask the people of St. Louis to try Vinol on our strong guarantee." Wolff-Wilson Drug Co.

GOVERNOR OF OREGON
Uses Pe-ru-na In His Family
For Colds and Finds It an Excellent Remedy.

The Magnificent State Capitol Building at Salem, Oregon.

PRAISE FROM THE EX-GOVERNOR OF OREGON.

PERUNA is known from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Letters of congratulation and commendation testifying to the merits of Peruna as a catarrh remedy are pouring in from every State of the Union.

Dr. Hartman is receiving hundreds of such letters daily. All classes write these letters, from the highest to the lowest.

The outdoor laborer, the indoor artisan, the clerk, the editor, the statesman, the preacher—all agree that Peruna is the catarrh remedy of the age.

The stage and rostrum, recognizing catarrh as their greatest enemy, are especially enthusiastic in their praise and testimony.

Any man who wishes perfect health must be entirely free from catarrh. Catarrh is well-nigh universal; almost omnipresent.

Peruna is the only absolute safeguard known. A cold is the beginning of catarrh. To prevent colds, to cure colds, is to cheat catarrh of its victims.

Peruna not only cures catarrh, but prevents it. Every household should be supplied with this great remedy for coughs, colds and so forth.

The Ex-Governor of Oregon is an ardent admirer of Peruna. He keeps it continually in the house.

In a letter to The Peruna Medicine Co., he says:

State of Oregon,
Executive Department,
Columbus, O.

The Peruna Medicine Co.,

Dear Sirs—I have had occasion to use your Peruna medicine in my family for colds, and it proved to be an excellent remedy. I have not had occasion to use it for other ailments.

Yours very truly,
W. M. LORD.

It will be noticed that the Ex-Governor says he has not had occasion to use Peruna for other ailments. The reason for this is, most other ailments begin with a cold.

Using Peruna to promptly cure colds, he protects his family against other ailments.

This is exactly what every other family in the United States should do—keep Peruna in the house. Use it for coughs, colds, la grippe and other climatic affections of winter, and there will be no other ailments in the house.

Such families should provide themselves with a copy of Dr. Hartman's free book, entitled, "Chronic Catarrh."

SHAKE-UP GENERAL FOR THE POLICE

Three Hundred Emergency Patrolmen to Be Dismissed—New Districts for Captains.

At a meeting of the board of police commissioners, Wednesday afternoon, a general shake-up of the entire police department will take place. Police captains and lieutenants will be sent in many cases to different districts from those in which they have served during the World's Fair, and 300 of the 500 emergency special patrolmen will be discharged.

Provision must be made for Capt. William Young, who has been in charge of the World's Fair district. The reinstatement of Capt. Boyd and the removal of Capt. Schroeder to the Third district, from which Capt. Young was sent to the Fair, will make it necessary to provide a place for the latter. Capt. Young will probably be placed in charge of the Central district. Lieut. Mansfield of the Central will probably go to the Fourth, while Lieut. Schwartz of the Fourth will probably be sent to the Sixth. Lieut. McKenna, now acting captain at Central district, will assume night duties at the same district.

The 200 emergency special patrolmen who will be retained will be added to the regular force, at the salary of $95 per month. This will increase the force 200 over its size previous to the World's Fair. The men to be retained will be chosen in accordance with their records during the time they have been connected with the department.

POUNDED FOR TEN ROUNDS, CORBETT YIELDS TO NELSON

Sickened and Bleeding Under Rain of Short-Arm Punches, Great Ex-Champion Gives Up Fight After Ten Rounds of Hopeless Battling.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 30.—"Young Corbett" was broken-hearted over his defeat. Like the game little fellow he is, he gave all credit to the victor.

It developed after the third round that "Young Corbett" wasn't putting up his usual fight. He was weak and showed it. Nelson followed "Corbett" all o' the ring and beat him at his own game. Nelson clinched with "Corbett" and kept jolting him with first one hand and then the other. He seemed to hit "Corbett" at will and the crowd marveled. "Young Corbett" was weak and it was apparent to Nelson that he had "Corbett" at his mercy.

In the first round "Corbett" staggered Nelson with a left on the jaw, but the Dane came back full of fight. He lowered his head like a bull and hung on, whipping in lefts and rights. Corbett protected his body and, awaiting his chance, would swing with his left to Nelson's head, but missing as a rule.

Corbett dropped Nelson to his knees in the third round and landed three hooks that hurt, but still the Dane came back for more, surprising the crowd by raining blows on "Young Corbett." Near the close of the fourth round "Corbett" had Nelson groggy, and but for the gong Nelson would have been put to sleep.

"Corbett" went to his corner and complained of cramps in his stomach. The pains were caused by a heavy meal he ate after weighing in. He tried to vomit, but without success. He went out for the fifth round and stalled. His stomach hurt him and he protected it as best he could. "Corbett" landed on Nelson's eye and it looked swollen. The Dane's stamina was remarkable. He never tired and kept after "Corbett," having the better of the round.

Nelson saw he had "the kid" weakened and went right to him. Before the round was over he had "Corbett" tired and clinching. The crowd was yelling for Nelson. In the eighth Nelson butted "Corbett" until the blood flowed down Willie's face, blinding him and making him look badly.

Saved by Gong in the Ninth.

The gong saved "Corbett" in the ninth. Nelson followed "Corbett" all over the ring, pummeling him at will. The crowd was astounded and could not understand it. The spectators expected Willie to uncover and dig into his opponent, but "Corbett" was not there. Nelson tried to put "Corbett" out, but did not possess the punch.

"Corbett" gave a wonderful exhibition of gameness. He took the gruelling like a man. The tenth saw the finish. "Corbett" left his corner like a dead man and Nelson, scenting victory, tore after his man. He hammered "Corbett" all over the arena and still could not score a knockout. Near the close of the round, Harry Tuthill went into the ring and virtually threw up the sponge.

After the battle, "Corbetts" hand was grasped by Jimmy Britt, who sympathized with his old opponent. "Corbett" was taken to the Emergency Hospital and three stitches were taken in his scalp, where Nelson butted him.

"Nelson beat me fairly," said "Corbett." "He is a strong fellow. I would like to fight him at the same weight. I must have weakened myself in taking off 12 pounds in four weeks."

Jimmy Britt said: "I am sorry "Corbett" lost. He showed true grit and proved he was a game fellow. "Corbett," in my opinion, was not in shape. He acted weakly all through. I did not like Corbett, but after his splendid showing, I want to say all animosity I had against him has ceased. I will fight Nelson next month and can beat him. He is a strong fellow and is game, but I am faster and can hit harder than he can. I can fight him at 132 pounds at 6 o'clock."

Billy Roche, referee, said: "It was one of the greatest fights I have ever seen. "Corbett" was not himself. He only had Nelson in distress once. Nelson is a great fighter and can give them all a battle. Nelson and Britt will make a great fight. "Corbett" is a great little fighter, but he was out of condition tonight."

Odds Were 2 to 1 on "Corbett."

While technically no championship title went with the winning end of the fight, the fact that the victor will meet Jimmy Britt in this city next month for the world's championship, proved an incentive, which greatly stimulated the efforts of the principals, and impelled them to train to the limit.

Corbett, in particular, had undergone a very severe course of training. The former champion made no secret of the fact that his weight just previous to the conditioning process was 144 pounds, but by faithful and strenuous work that figure was systematically reduced, and when the lads weighed in at 6 o'clock this evening Corbett's weight was at the figure previously agreed upon, namely, 130 pounds.

Nelson had been at this figure for days past, and at no time has there been any apprehension in regard to his making the weight.

He failed to raise the beam at the 130 notch, as he stepped on the scales. When the two belligerents stepped into the ring tonight Corbett ruled a warm favorite at odds of 1 to 2. Bets were registered at even money that the ex-champion would dispose of his opponent in from twelve to fifteen rounds. Despite the disparity in the price, betting continued heavy up to the final moment.

Corbett's seconds were Harry Tuthill (his manager), Frank McDonald, Billy Otts, Carson and Tim McGrath. Nelson was seconded by Ted Murphy, Frank Rafael, Dan Danziger and Jack Kelly.

Later in the evening the betting, owing to the weight of Nelson money, switched to the odds of 10 to 7.

It is estimated that the receipts tonight will approximate $15,000.

"Cyclone" Kelly knocked out George Adams in the second round of the first preliminary. In the other preliminary Nick Cordell of San Francisco was given the decision over Eddie Santry of Chicago at the end of 10 rounds.

By Jimmy Britt.

"Nelson is one grand little fighter and I realize that when I fight him in December I have got to put up a better fight than I ever did before in my life. I have had my eyes opened and any doubt that I had as to Nelson as a card is swept away. He is the one man that I want to fight. And I want to say that all the bickerings between Corbett and myself are over, as far as I am concerned, after the game showing he made. I am willing, if he is, to shake hands and call off past unfriendliness."

By Young Corbett.

Corbett said: "I was beaten fairly, that is all there is to it. I have really nothing to say. Let it go out to the world that I say I was fairly beaten by a man who is better than I am tonight. You know what I mean. There is no complaint from this side. We will always take our beatings with as good grace as we give it to others, and I would be the last man to detract from the other man's victory. He won, and he won fairly all the way. He is better than I am tonight."

By Battling Nelson.

"Well, another short-ender brought home the money. Kind of fooled 'em, didn't I? At no time of the fight was I in doubt of the result. Of course, in the first two or three rounds I was just feeling him out, but after the third round had passed, I knew I had him. Before the fight I said that Corbett was not game. I take that back now. He is one game guy. What he took tonight showed it. I am not marked up a bit and I am not hurt. Britt? Why, I'll win from Britt. He looks just like the rest of 'em to me, and I'll get him. I won a little over $2000 tonight outside of my share of the receipts."

Racing Dates to Be Assigned.

Racing stewards of the Western Jockey Club will meet in Chicago next Monday to assign racing dates for next year. The Union Jockey Club of St. Louis has selected a committee of three, consisting of Messrs. Shaughnessy, Griesedieck and Duffy, to request 30 racing days. The Union track is now on the disqualification list for having given an unauthorized or unlicensed meeting, as the Western Jockey Club designates all meetings which are not sanctioned by it.

Famous English Jumper Retired.

Manifesto, the most famous of all modern English jumpers, broke a small bone in his near knee in a fall at Liverpool recently and will never go to the races again. Manifesto is 17 years old and started eight times in the Liverpool Grand National, winning twice and finishing third on three other occasions. Manifesto was a remarkably sure jumping horse, having fallen but twice during his long career over obstacles.

Son Shoots Father.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

MEXICO, Mo., Nov. 30.—Obe W. Smith, one of the substantial farmers and prominent citizens of Audrain County, was shot and probably fatally wounded by his son this morning. The shooting was done with a target rifle and was an accident. Physicians say the wounded man will not recover.

To Play Western Teams.

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—The schedule for the Columbia University basket ball team will include games with Minnesota and Wisconsin to be played in New York. Games also have been arranged with Pennsylvania and Yale.

MAGGIOLI IS AFTER MATCH WITH TAYLOR.

Al Taylor, who won the balk line billiard tournament at Hauser's Hall, has been challenged for a match contest by Francois Maggioli, who was one of the contestants in the tournament. Thus far Taylor has not accepted, but it is likely that he will agree to meet the Frenchman. The match will be at 18-inch balk line for a side bet of $250.

In the three-cushion tournament now in progress at Hauser's, a double-header will be played tonight. Cotterel will meet Thomas and Sommers will play McMillan.

UNION SOLICITS L. A. CELLA'S AID

Committee of Three Asks His Assistance in Getting the New Track Reinstated.

A committee of three, representing stockholders in the Union Jockey Club, called on Louis A. Cella in his office, Fourth and Pine streets, at noon Wednesday and requested his co-operation in securing the reinstatement of the Union track into the good graces of the Western Jockey Club and in getting favorable action from the stewards upon the Union track's request for racing dates next year.

Cella told the Union delegation that their application for reinstatement and racing dates would have to be laid before the Western Jockey Club stewards next Monday.

"I am not a member of the board of stewards," said Cella. "The board consists of seven members. The Delmar and Fair grounds tracks have one vote in the board. My brother is a member of the board. How the other six members will vote on your petition is something I would not care to anticipate."

WALSH IS BACK IN PRESS BOX

No Attempt Will Be Made to Enforce Disqualification Against Him as a Correspondent.

The Crescent City Jockey Club of New Orleans has reconsidered its determination to enforce the Western Jockey Club's disqualification rule against Richard D. Walsh. In his capacity of racing correspondent for the Post-Dispatch, Mr. Walsh will continue to enjoy all the privileges of the Crescent City Jockey Club.

Mr. Walsh was placed on the Western Jockey Club's disqualification list for officiating as associate judge at the Union track in St. Louis last summer. In view of the fact that he is no longer connected with the Union track, and is at New Orleans in the exclusive capacity of correspondent for the Post-Dispatch, the management of the Crescent City Jockey Club decided not to interfere with him.

Mr. Walsh will continue to enjoy a seat in the press stand and report the races. It is understood that this action does not touch the case of Mr. Walsh as a former Union track judge.

THE GREAT SALE EXPOSITION PIANOS IN FULL PROGRESS

These Beautiful Exposition Pianos Purchased by Kieselhorst Co. From the Exhibitors at Great Price Reduction.

NOW BEING SOLD AT NEARLY HALF VALUES.

Money-Saving on Best Pianos the Great Prominent Features of This Sale, But Many Happy to Get Lifetime Souvenirs of the Great Fair.

EASY TERMS OFFERED TO ALL. OPEN EVENINGS, 914 OLIVE ST.

We bought these beautiful Exposition pianos from the exhibitors at a price that enables us to sell them to you at almost half their real value, and those that were used other than as exhibit pianos are going at much less, in many instances, than their original value.

Let us take you down the aisle of our store this morning. In imagination, your are entering the door at 914 Olive street. To the right as you enter you will note a pretty little cottage upright piano in a mahogany case, small size, made by the manufacturer to sell at $200. The canary-colored sale tag plainly indicates the sale price, only $87. This pretty little upright has been admired by a host of people and many have been sold for beginners, on terms of $10 down and $5 monthly.

On your left as you pass along (you will note we are telling you how it looks this morning; before night many will be taken) you will notice a large French walnut cabinet grand upright with three hand-carved panels on swing desk, three pedals and patent soft stop, a thorough standard-made piano. The manufacturer's selling price on this was $350; our sale tag tells you the sale price is $218. Terms cash, or $15 cash, $8 per month.

To the left is another new standard-made upright piano, in one of those plain-chaste, mahogany cases that appeals to many people. This would in the ordinary way be low in price at $300. The sale tag shows the sale price to be $187. Terms, $10 or more down, $6 monthly, or cash.

The next piano you will note to the left as you pass along is a very handsome cabinet grand upright. Truly, it is a work of art, both as to case design and in tone quality. A finer piano, in our judgment, in upright form does not exist, and had we purchased this in the regular way we would have to sell it for at least $550, but $327 takes it, either in cash or on time payments of $25 down, $10 month.

And further on you will see one of the highest-class makes, in a beautiful genuine rosewood case, something that one sees very little of nowadays, as practically all dark-cased pianos are just finished or painted cases. This is truly double veneered with rosewood. This piano was specially exhibited in one of the state buildings, and it would ordinarily have to be sold for $600. Our sale price is $367. Terms, $25 down and $10 monthly.

But here, as you pass along, you will see many others, comprising many of the highest-class and best of makes, not so elaborately carved, but regular $300, $325, $350, $373, $450 and $500 values. Purchasing them as we did at a great discount from the regular factory prices, we can close them out at $150, $185, $200, $240, $275 to $298, and little higher for the more expensive-cased ones. Terms, $10 to $25 down, $6, $8 to $10 monthly, or cash.

STOCK COMPRISES BEST MAKES.

Remember, this stock we are clearing out comprises the best and highest-class makes—Kimball pianos, the World's Fair premium make; Hallet & Davis, Boston's most favored piano; Decker & Son, Steinway and the many-toned Crown pianos; Whitney, Knabe, H. M. Cable and other makes. Most all are new. Some are used pianos, but are priced accordingly

Attend the great sale. Get a piano now and save a big sum of money. We'll store free until Christmas if desired.

Second-hand uprights, some only slightly used; a three-pedal Steinway upright, only $190; a large Chickering, only $200; a rosewood-cased Knabe, only $175; a fine Kimball, only $185; another for $165, and other uprights. Some pretty good makes as low as $85. Terms, $10 or more down, $5 up monthly, or cash.

Square pianos go at your own price and terms in order to clear them out of the way of incoming Exposition stocks.

Numerous piano players, to close out, at $110 up.

Cabinet organs, to close, at less than half value.

Store open evenings to accommodate those who cannot call during the day. Come out in the evening, bring your good wife and daughter, and see and hear the finest instruments, offered now at such great bargains.

DR. DUFF'S QUICK, CERTAIN AND SAFE CURE FOR VARICOCELE

CHAS. A. DUFF, M. D.

I am a Varicocele Specialist, Not a Pretentious "Cure-All."

The only known method that cures the disease at once without a surgical operation, loss of blood, the least bit of pain and not interfering with occupation.

My treatment by Acupuncture and Absorption checks the overflow of blood to the scrotal veins and removes the stagnant blood that obstructs the circulation, so that the ganglionic nerves, the weakness of which causes varicocele, are restored to strength, and normal circulation to the organs is resumed without a sign or symptom of Varicocele ever returning.

In treating Varicocele it is always necessary to cure the complications, if the disease has been neglected, which are often worse than the cause, and I never dismiss a patient until I have restored the organs to their natural size, strength and soundness, revitalized the nervous system so that nervousness disappears, stopped all vital drains and emissions and revived sexual power and renewed the body with a robust condition and perfect health.

There are thousands of men deceived by unskilled doctors who claim to cure Varicocele by application of medicines, electricity, suspensories and many other deceptive schemes, and this is why there are so many who have become so skeptical as to think there is no cure for them. There never was a cure for Varicocele except by surgical operation or my methods. Surgical operations are often dangerous, unsuccessful and painful.

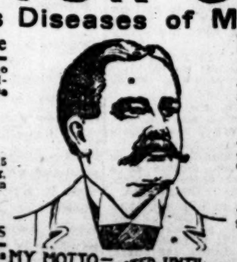

CURE OR NO CHARGE—Absolutely no charge unless satisfaction is given. My patients receive a written guarantee to refund every dollar paid for services if in a stated length of time they do not receive a complete, lifelong cure and entire satisfaction, and my well-known financial standing is sufficient evidence to any one that I am entirely responsible for any contract that is not fulfilled.

Consultation Free, Confidential and Invited, both at office and by correspondence. Successful treatment by mail. Terms are always made to suit the convenience of anyone applying for treatment, and very reasonable charges. Do not treat elsewhere until you have investigated my methods and terms. Office hours during week: 8 a. m. to 8 p. m.; Sundays, 9 to 1.

Song of the boodlers: "Only 30 more days of Joe Folk!"

Tomorrow is the last day—Francis Day. Make it the biggest day.

Gen. Kuropatkin thinks it is better to go to war in an automobile than in a hammock. Gen. Shafter's expert opinion has not yet been obtained.

It has taken 12 years in Texas to win a suit against a railroad company. In some other states, however, railroad suits last 17 years. Texas has done well.

The presentation of a raccoon to the most triumphant of all Republicans is eminently proper. Thirty years ago the 'coon was a favorite Republican emblem. Why should the dominant party steal Democratic roosters?

Whether a railroad is or is not a railroad depends not upon the dictionary, but upon the law; the law in turn depends upon the opinion of the majority of the court which today is and tomorrow may be smothered under a political landslide. And so we get back, after all, to the dictionary, where the plain people find plain meanings for plain words.

ST. LOUIS AND THE FAIR.

The material advantages accruing to St. Louis through the World's Fair were compactly set forth by Mr. Festus J. Wade at the Business Men's League dinner Monday evening.

In 1898, when the suggestion of a World's Fair was first made the taxable wealth of St. Louis was $360,000,000. In 1904 it is $459,000,000.

The enormous increase in business activity is shown in the banking capital, which has risen from $29,000,000 to $80,000,000, while the bank and trust company deposits have increased from $162,000,000 to $252,000,000. In 1898 the total clearings were $1,455,462,062, in 1904 they will aggregate more than $2,800,000,000.

The wholesale trade in dry goods and textiles in 1898 amounted to $40,000,000. In 1904 it is $80,000,000.

The value of the Exposition as a people's university and a promoter of moral culture cannot, of course, be measured in terms of material good. But the two kinds of benefit cannot be wholly separated and Mr. Wade's statistics showing the actual commercial expansion of the city afford a clew to the power for moral good which has accrued from the enterprise.

St. Louis is now one of the great cities of the world. It is known everywhere and its importance acknowledged, as of course, by millions of people in all quarters of the earth. Commercially and morally, the city is one of the great centers of human life and work. This is the dividend paid to St. Louis by the World's Fair.

The opinion of the attorney-general of the United States that guessing schemes are disguised lotteries and that the post-office department should not permit the mails to be used for the purpose of promoting and handling them, will be received with general gratification by the public. The difference between buying a guess and buying a lottery chance is not clear to the lay mind and it has been difficult to understand how the anti-lottery policy of the government could be reconciled with a toleration of newspaper and other guessing contests which have made large profits for their promoters at the expense of the people. The determination of the administration to enforce the law as interpreted by the attorney-general will remove a reproach from the federal authorities by making their anti-lottery policy consistent and will protect too-confiding persons, especially the young, from temptations to throw away their money on long gambling chances. Moreover, it will free the newspaper business from a disreputable adjunct which has reflected discredit upon journalism.

IMPROVE THE SUBURBAN TRAIN SERVICE.

Post-Dispatch readers continue to express approval of the effort to bring about more satisfactory conditions in regard to local train service. And complaints continue to come in that, up to this time, the railway managers have done nothing towards improving the service.

Considering the well-known energy and enterprise of the railroads entering St. Louis, a statement of the conditions existing, from the standpoint of the public, ought to be sufficient to bring about a change.

The commutation trains are continually being "held up" in favor of through trains, whose passengers may or may not add to the welfare of St. Louis. Local passenger trains are even delayed by freight trains. Yet the passengers on these local trains are business men of St. Louis, their employes, their wives and children—an important part of the community which has granted the railroads their immensely valuable local franchises. Surely these trains and their passengers should have the right-of way during the hours when business men and wage earners are going to and returning from the city.

Francis Day has been proclaimed a state holiday by Gov. Dockery and a municipal holiday by Mayor Wells. Let everyone observe it as a holiday by going to the World's Fair. St. Louis owes President Francis a great tribute for his splendid work. The most effective and appropriate way to pay it is to make Francis Day the biggest day. The farewell to the Exposition should be a rousing demonstration.

CULTURE IN THE KITCHEN.

The domestic service problem is to be solved by young college men who will hire out as cooks or for general housework.

A beginning is made by the University of Nebraska, where 12 youths are taking the domestic science course, with a view to taking positions vacated by young women who prefer factory work or stenography.

Having a college bred cook in the kitchen is to have well cooked food on the table. And if it is served by a college bred waiter we shall have the perfection of good living.

For general housework the innovation is even more desirable. The great trouble heretofore with general housework is that it is so unscientific. Untutored common sense has been supposed to be the guarantee of excellent work. Common sense did well enough in the old days, but now, when we all aspire to be elaborately simple, we must have culture. When the young college man brings his trunk to the flat domestic life will become a dream indeed. Beds made inductively, sweeping done according to a bacteriological calculation of the number of microbes in the carpet, the butcher boy awed by the presence of learning, and pies, better even than those mother used to make. What a joy it will be to keep house!

Free speech is guaranteed by the federal and state constitutions. However, abuse of this freedom may be punished. Provided: that if the chief of police thinks it is going to be abused he may arrest and deport the persons suspected. It will be observed that constitutional limitations do not limit the chief of police.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

RAILROAD MEN WANT FRANCIS DAY.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

The employes of the various railroad companies of St. Louis are extremely desirous of attending the closing ceremonies of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, and assisting by their presence on the occasion in making it the banner day of the World's Fair. It would, therefore, under the existing circumstances, be in accordance with the eternal fitness of things for the railroad corporations of the city to dedicate and declare Dec. 1 a holiday, to enable all railroad men an opportunity to participate in the amusements of the day and at the same time render due respect and honor to the Hon. D. R. Francis for the ability displayed by him in the inauguration and management to a successful termination the greatest World's Fair the world has ever known. APEX.

IRISH INDUSTRIAL EXHIBIT.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

I warmly indorse the desire of "E. L. D.," of your issue of the 28th inst., in relation to "Irish Industrial Exhibit," as long as you can. The entrance fee should, in no sense, be a desideratum. Without disparagement of the work of any other people, or nation, this exhibit is highly commendable. I am induced to make this indorsement through what seems to me an unjustified prejudice against the Irish people.
JAMES P. WILTON.

ST. LOUIS HAS CLEAR WATER.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Noting in your open correspondence, regarding a testimonial or loving cup for Mr. Adkins, beg to state that I do not think that the public locally, or those that have come in here for the World's Fair, appreciate the service that Mr. Adkins has done for the city.

Even with our extraordinary overflow of people we have had less sickness than any summer heretofore. We have for years been the butt of jokes, poked at us for the water that we have offered to the public from our hotels and public places; all of this has been remedied by a good, pure water, and at very little expense. From the standpoint of benefits, the water that we have received and are now receiving is more beneficial to the city than anything that has occurred for many years. "DE RESZKE."

AND SUCH IS LIFE.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

A little incident witnessed Saturday night at the Fair by a friend and myself shows to what length some people will go to prove themselves "natural born hogs."

Returning from the Filipinos and passing the French pavilion, where only a few people were at the time, Mrs. Roosevelt, desirous of dispensing with some of the surplus donations, handed to the President a large beribboned bouquet to toss it to a lady standing close to the carriage.

Hardly had the lady, however, taken hold of the gift when a smooth-faced young tough sneaked up, wrenched the bouquet from her hands and ran away at top speed, disappearing in the darkness.

Shortly afterwards the lady met the fellow. He still had the bouquet and was just proceeding to dissect it with the help of a female companion. The lady walked up to the pair and asked them very politely to please let her have just one flower of what was rightly all her own.

Her request, however, was turned down by the couple in the insolent manner peculiar to their clan—that of the hogs.

ADVICE TO A LOVER.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Anxious A. E. W.: You ask advice in regard to honor.

My advice is to make a clean breast of it to both of them; as the great mistake you have made is by keeping your betrothed in ignorance of the No. 2, for any sensible girl will love, honor and respect a gentleman who is honest with her, far better than a deceitful one. Then look at all the trouble it saves by keeping things straight as you go along.

But remember, it isn't money and position alone that makes people happy; it is the mutual confidence, the mutual reliance, the respect, and best, but not least, the mutual love, trying to make each other happy, not thinking of self all the time. The more you can do for each other, the happier you will both be.

Wishing you the best success out of your difficulty, yours sympathetically, J. E. I.

Doctors sometimes plug the nose very far back. Keep as quiet as possible. If any reader has a remedy for years of persistent bleeding we should be pleased to give it space.

JUST A MINUTE For POST-DISPATCH Verse and Humor

The Passing of the Fair.

I.

Now, honest, doesn't it make you sigh, in most despondent tone,
To know that all these palaces will soon be overthrown?
And doesn't it sort o' make you creep, and sort o' dim your eye
To see all this magnificence so swiftly passing by?
Alas! 'tis such a pity that we simply stand and stare,
Sad witnesses, and mute ones, of the passing of the Fair!

II.

Just think of all the towers and the domes
and colonnades,
Of East Pavilion, West Pavilion and of the great Cascades!
Just think of Agriculture, Metallurgy and of Liberal Arts,
Of Manufactures and of other piles grown
dear unto our hearts!
Is it any wonder that we sigh, before we are aware,
Instinctively bemoaning thus the passing of the Fair!

III.

Just think of all the palaces, by foreign nations reared!
How beautiful, how odd and how attractive they appeared!
"Ah, isn't it a shame," you say, "to see the wreckers raze
These halls of splendor and these scenes of such delightful days?
Oh, wonderful! Oh, marvelous! Oh, grand beyond compare!"
You cry, as you with grief behold the passing of the Fair.

Too Smart to Live.

Who, in his dizziest moments, ever dreamed that twenty or thirty or forty years afterward he would be able to recall off-hand the splendid array of facts he accumulated when he studied astronomy, geometry, physics and the like in the high school? Such facts are not made to be remembered.

Who among us today can recall the rule governing falling bodies? If a body falls 16 feet the first second and 256 feet the second second, how many feet will it fall the third, and what deduction must be made to allow for the curvature of the earth and all that business?

Ah, that's where I've got you! You don't know, and nobody expects you to know; yet at one time you DID know, and were kind o' proud of it.

But today you have no more use for that information than a hippopotamus has for a handbag, and it makes you feel sort o' creepy to listen to a man of mature years who talks in those big astronomical figures that used to make you marvel so; for astronomers think nothing of a million miles. They talk about a million miles just as we do about walking around the block.

"Yes," said the fidgety little man in the restaurant to the proprietor, while he was waiting for his breakfast, "sound travels fast"—somebody had happened to say something about sound—"but there is nothing that is swifter than light. No, sir; light is a wonderful thing. Light travels at the rate of 186,247 feet a second—or, as usually stated, 185,000 feet, in round numbers. Just think! It takes a ray of light from the north star fifty years to reach this earth!

"In other words, if the north star were to be destroyed this very instant, we would not learn of the fact until fifty years from now, when the light from it that started toward the earth fifty years ago—just about the time that I was born—should have ceased to shine. Isn't that wonderful?

"By a little calculation you can readily see that there are 3,153 600 seconds in one year, and that in fifty years there are 157,680,000 seconds. If light travels at the rate of 185,000 feet a second, a ray of light, in order to reach us from the north star, must travel 157,680,000 times 185,000 feet, which, as you can easily ascertain, amounts to 29,168,800,000,000 feet. Reduce this to miles and you can see at a glance the marvelous and incomprehensible distance which our little earth is located from some of the other heavenly bodies; and some of them are 1,000,000 times as far away from us as that beautiful luminary."

Don't you hate to get near a man who knows that much?

In the days of Frank and Jesse
Were there plays by Will M. Cressy?
Yes, a few.

The declaration of the homeopaths of Missouri that they elected Mr. Folk will have to be taken in small doses.

Young Corbett "ranted too much in the prologue," as Mr. Shakspeare once remarked.

Viola Allen came to town with "A Winter's Tale," and the next day it turned cold.

What! Can it be that Mr. Carnegie is one of those who are born every minute?

Why doesn't somebody hang out a thermometer, so we can feel how cold it is?

Strange that a tale of woo should sometimes turn to a tale of woe.

Dave's Day will be a dandy.

Newest in "New Thought."

Charles Brodie Patterson, one of the three or four leading exponents of the "New Thought" in America, has just finished a characteristic work which will be published by Funk & Wagnalls Company early in November under the title, "The Measure of a Man." Mr. Patterson is sure of his readers, and every new book he issues is certain to have a comfortably large sale. In the forthcoming volume he discusses first the "natural," the "rational," the "psychic," and the "spiritual" man. In Part II., he considers The Son of Man "as man," "as idealist," "as teacher," and "as healer," in the last division giving the philosophy of "mental healing" and something of its therapy.

A MOMENT'S MERRIMENT

She: Don't you wish knighthood was in flower again?

He: No; I'm having too much of a blooming time with your father as it is.

Business Man: When I started in the world I hadn't a cent to my name, and now I am worth nearly a million.

Officer: You don't mean it? Graft or inheritance?

Almost as Bad.

Bills: We've been sittin' here half a day and haven't had a bite.

Wills: Almost as bad as livin' in a boardin' house, ain't it?

A Solar Plexus.

Mr. Smith: I wouldn't pay $25 for a dress that I couldn't get $5 worth of wear out of.

Mrs. Smith: Oh, I don't know. You have paid more than that for a jackpot lots of times that you didn't get anything out of.

A Hero.

She: Charlie, they say that kissing is awfully dangerous.

He: Is that so? Then just watch me win one of those hero medals.

Put the Baby to Sleep.

Lady: You needn't play any more, mister.

Street Musician: Has the music no longer a charm for such fair ears?

Lady: No; the baby is asleep now.

ON THE SUBURBAN TRAIN

Written for the Post-Dispatch.

"I SEE there is great excitement in Switzerland over a train that makes 40 miles an hour," said the insurance man, who was sore because the outbound train was late and the commuters could not have any morning papers to read on the way in.

"Didn't know there were any suburban trains in Switzerland," said the druggist, who was unable to account for the excitement over the speed upon any other hypothesis.

"That shows how far we are ahead of the Swiss in railroading," said the railroad man, who likes to put in a good lick now and then for the institution which stands in front of his door and puts the wolf on the bum.

"Not on your doll baby," said the boss printer, turning around from the card game and taking chips in the discussion. "That Swiss train makes 40 miles an hour. It doesn't stand upon its record on a stationary testing machine. It tears itself away from the pleasant associations at the different roundhouses and sidetracks along the way and goes out and makes its little 40 miles. Figured on the American plan that Swiss train runs at the rate of a mile in nothing, with the air on."

"Of course," said the steamboat man, straightening up to hand the railroads a cross jolt he had been wanting to give them for 20 years. "I can run and jump about 15 feet. According to the American railroad system of computation, that means I can fly, because for a distance of 15 feet I can go at the rate of flying."

There was a titter in the smoker, and the railroad man, knowing himself licked, waved the brakeman up and bought the generously goods for four. The train rattled through switches and out into the open country. The commuters looked out over the fields of mauve and thought upon tomorrow's new monthly ticket.

"I see the Missouri Supreme Court cannot see that the St. Louis Terminal Association has a monopoly," said the insurance man.

"I knew the smoke was thick, but I didn't know it was that bad," said the druggist.

"I also see Gov. Vardaman is glad the President can see one good thing in Mississippi," said the insurance man.

"It must be gratifying to the governor to know that the President could do this when everyone else was busy looking at Vardaman," said the boss printer.

The train ran out on the bridge and stopped again.

"Change," said the druggist, and the boss printer stopped the cinch game and dealt for bridge whist.

The train reached the city 20 minutes late. "St. Louis!" shouted the brakeman, who wasn't afraid to say it, for he knew the train was consistent, anyway.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS FROM TODAY IN ST. LOUIS

BY O. B. JOYFUL.

(From the Post-Dispatch of Nov. 30, 1929.)

Just twenty-five years ago the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, the greatest show on earth—Barnum's, Ringling Bros.' and others not excepted—was preparing to close its gates against the 19,000,000 visitors who had coughed up their little old spondulix to get inside and view the wonderful goings-on. It is a matter of history that every member of every civilized race, man, woman and child, kicked him, her or itself till he, she or it was purple around the epiglottis when they finally bestirred themselves and awoke to a realization of the fact that they were a lot of crabs, dummies, nits, mutts, dubs, pie faces, zeroes-with-the-rim-off, etc., for not having patronized this most marvelous of all expositions while there was yet time, place and opportunity. Oh, but there was weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth such as had never been heard on the face of the earth, and verily millions of those who were cast into outer darkness when the gates of the mighty World's Fair were closed against them forever on the day following are moaning and groaning and lifting up their voices in lamentation even unto this day!

Where has all the sporting blood of St. Louis gone to? Here Wallie Wright and Dinks Parrish have been jimmying around two weeks or more trying (at least they say they are trying) to arrange an airship race between Wright's "Cabbage Leaf" and Parrish's "Smile Perpetual" for $500 a side, but for some reason Parrish is persistently holding off and the sport in St. Louis is being delayed. Some believe that Parrish is afraid of the game because Charlie Stanley has butted in with his dandy new air cart, "The Onion," while others believe that he is leary because of Frank Harris' crack pushcart, "The Mollie O." In the meantime C. L. Hilleary is lying in the background with his "Large Four," and Jeff Hunt is keeping a little gas in his "Only Way" all the time. Old Russ Gardner, in the meantime, is out in a defi to everything in town for a race from St. Louis to New York and return for $1000 a side—Wright preferred—but is willing to take the lid off as far as the wager is concerned. Still what has all this got to do with the proposed race between Wright and Parrish? If Parrish isn't willing to race his old air tub, which he claims is such a cracker jack, why doesn't he get out of the way and let some good man have a chance? Isn't he a member of the Western Airship Jockey Club? If so, there is but one thing to do. Either Parrish must back down and get his tub out of the way, or Wright must cease all dickering with him. Wake up gentlemen! The Milky Way is clear! Don't kill the airship racing sport in St. Louis!

Eggs for Invalid.

To poach eggs for an invalid, break them into a granite dish, pour boiling water over them, cover and let them stand on the back of the stove for eight minutes. Do not apply heat to the dish.

To Paper a Room.

If you want to paper a room yourself choose a plain paper. These are to be had in a great variety of charming colors and it saves an immense amount of trouble not to have to match the pattern of each strip with the last when putting it on. In a room having many pictures a plain paper is always more effective than a figured one.

To Remove Iron Stains.

To remove iron stains on marble apply to them a mixture of oxalic acid and methylated spirits, leave it on a short time and then rub dry with a soft cloth. Lemon juice will sometimes remove the stains.

Sugar That "Dies."

Sugar should be bought in small quantities as it dies and loses its flavor if kept; raisins, currants and candied peel will not keep long. Vinegar soon loses its flavor if kept, and so does Lucca oil. Macaroni will not keep, and spice, pepper and roasted coffee, too, soon deteriorate.

For Richer Coffee.

Putting ground coffee to steep in cold water the night before will be found to result in economy and richness of flavor to the breakfast beverage. Enough coffee should be used to allow one tablespoonful for every cup and an extra one for the pot.

To Economize on Soap.

Candles burn better and more slowly if they have been stored in a dry place six or seven weeks before being used. Soap will go twice as far if well dried. It should be cut into small blocks and these arranged in tiers with spaces between to allow them to dry.

Before attempting to chop parsley, wash it and squeeze it very dry in a clean cloth.

Molasses used in cooking should be previously boiled and skimmed. This removes the raw taste.

PUBLIC MUSEUM IS DULY INCORPORATED

Valuable Donation of 5000 Specimens in Mines Building Is First to Be Made.

DOWNTOWN OFFICES OPEN

Acquisition Committee Is Increased and Work of Gathering Exhibits Is Pushed.

Articles of incorporation of the St. Louis Public Museum Association have been filed in the Circuit court. They are signed by the temporary officers of the association, Pierre Chouteau, president; Geo. T. Parker, secretary, and William H. Thompson, treasurer.

The first public donation to the museum is the exhibit of 5000 specimens of gold-bearing quartz, gold nuggets, amethysts, turquoise and copper in the Mines and Metallurgy building at the World's Fair. The exhibit was presented to the museum by William Foster, a former St. Louisan, now a resident of the Klondyke.

Downtown headquarters of the museum association have been temporarily established in the rooms of the Manufacturers' Association in the Merchants' Exchange. The headquarters at the World's Fair will be in the Anthropology building.

It is the plan of the association to preserve the statuary at the World's Fair with a view to having some of the best pieces reproduced in metal at a later date. Arrangements will also probably be made to secure the collection of forestry exhibits of the St. Louis Lumbermen's Association.

The displays as they are gathered will for the present be taken to the Palace of Fine Arts, where the use of the two wings has been secured.

C. H. Hutting, W. H. Woodward and Benjamin Altheimer were Tuesday night chosen members of a committee to solicit donations of money from the various branches of trade in the city. The directors chose the following acquisition committee, with power to add as many members as they saw fit:

L. D. Kingsland, who will confer with the commissioners from the Latin-American countries; Benjamin Altheimer, Germany and Austria; D. I. Bushnell and Amedee B. Cole, anthropological, agricultural and horticultural exhibits; William Trelease, fish, forestry and game exhibits; Goodman King, exhibits from the Manufactures, Varied Industries and French buildings; J. E. Smith and D. C. Nugent, China, Japan, Norway and Sweden; Pierre Chouteau, Mines and Metallurgy building; William H. Thompson, steam railway exhibits; Robert McCulloch, electric railway exhibits; D. I. Bushnell, Egypt; Pierre Chouteau, Belgium; William H. Thompson and F. D. Hirschberg, England and her colonies; H. H. Wernse and Richard Bartholdt, the United States and possessions; G. H. Ten Brook, Holland; William Trelease, Africa; John H. Terry, Liberal Arts and Fish, Forestry and Game exhibits; F. M. Crunden and Frederick W. Lehmann, exhibits from the Educational building; C. H. Huttig, appointed to see all of the state commissioners.

Leaves Fair for Isthmus.

H. F. McGarvie, manager of special exploitation of the World's Fair, has tendered his resignation to take effect immediately. Mr. McGarvie will leave St. Louis for New York City. After a short visit there he will go to Panama, where he will take a position with a construction company. He will be accompanied by Allen Cockrell, secretary of the committee on ceremonies.

KERENS GAINING; NIEDRINGHAUS IS AT STANDSTILL

Vote of Legislators for Candidates for United States Senator Remains an Unknown Quantity, According to Reliable Authority

NIEDRINGHAUS LEADS, BUT STILL IS SHORT

Parker Has Barely Ten Votes to His Credit and These Are From Representatives Along Frisco Road.

Figures secured by the Post-Dispatch from reliable sources show that none of the candidates who aspires to succeed Francis M. Cockrell as United States senator from Missouri has as yet captured a majority of the Republican legislators, which would give him strength equivalent to election, as all of the nominees will be bound by caucus rules.

While the Niedringhaus men are claiming 55 votes for their candidate and friends of "Col. Dick" Kerens say he has nearly 40, the facts really are that both are materially short of the votes necessary to nominate.

Niedringhaus has a decided lead over Kerens, but not the lead he had two weeks ago.

If anything, Kerens has gained within the last ten days, while the candidacy of the Republican state chairman has not advanced.

Niedringhaus started off better than he now progresses. Kerens, who was regarded only recently as the weakest of the Republican senatorial aspirants, has forged ahead of L. F. Parker, general attorney of the Frisco railroad, who has barely ten votes to his credit; and these are from representatives situated in counties along the Frisco road.

Niedringhaus is sure of 11 out of the 13 Republican representatives from St. Louis, and up to the present time Kerens has not counted a single vote out of St. Louis.

Kerens Expects St. Louis Votes.

Kerens expects, according to his managers, four St. Louis votes. Two St. Louis members, whose names are not stated, are "on the fence," waiting for developments.

In addition to the St. Louis vote, Niedringhaus is assured of support from representatives in every Democratic county which turned into the Republican column at the recent election.

Washington, Franklin, Adair and Grundy counties are also considered Niedringhaus strongholds.

Kerens' main strength comes from the western part of the state.

At a meeting of the Kansas City delegation, composed of six Republican legislators, Monday night, Kerens was assured of five votes.

The only man who held out against Kerens was Senator C. W. Clark.

Senator Clark is anxious to vote for Maj. William Warner of Kansas City, and after that, it is said, providing Warner's chances have dwindled, he will line up with the Kerens forces.

Another evidence of the Kerens movement is shown in Jasper County, where the three Republican members of the legislature are committed to his candidacy, and the senator from that district, W. J. McIndoo, is also said to be trimming his sails Kerensward.

Kerens also expects a vote from Greene County, while the Newton County representative has pledged not only his own vote, but that of three or four others from his section of the state, to the former national committeeman.

Although impossible to get all of the counties which are now pledged to the senatorial candidates, the list as prepared by the Post-Dispatch makes allowances for those from which positive pledges have been received.

The Niedringhaus managers, in claim 55 votes for their candidate, include a number of representatives who can safely be counted in the doubtful column.

Says Kerens Is the Strongest.

"Lib" Morse, in charge of the Kerens headquarters, says: "Mr. Kerens is sure of 35 votes at the present time. I could not, of course, say just where he will poll his greatest strength, but there may be some surprises in store for the opposition, even in the St. Louis delegation.

"I figure that Mr. Kerens is the strongest man in the race at the present time. He has gained twice as many votes in the last week as all of the other candidates combined and by the middle of December he will have enough to insure the caucus nomination."

Of the 27 votes classed as non-commital, probably one-half will stick to the "middle of the road" until the legislature convenes.

That is to say, they will wait to see which way the wind blows and then prepare for a leap into the band wagon of the winner.

If this proves true, Kerens stock will enjoy a substantial boom from now on, as his lieutenants are past-masters in the art of manipulating legislative votes when votes are waiting to be manipulated.

The belief is general among well-posted politicians that Parker will drop out of the race in favor of "Col." Kerens, and that the letter of National Committeeman Akins, advocating the election of the Frisco attorney and "knocking" the candidacy of Kerens, will prove a frost.

See Danger in Friendship.

Parker and Kerens have always been friendly, notwithstanding their lineup with opposite factions in Missouri politics and therein lies another danger for Neidringhaus.

It is understood that the 27 men whom the managers of the candidates include as "noncommittal" refuse to express a preference until the "field is thoroughly scoured."

Adolphus Busch, millionaire brewer, is still grooming the candidacy of his friend and legal counselor, Charles Nagel, but there are no indications at present that Nagel will be considered a factor.

The fight, so far at least as St. Louis candidates are concerned, has narrowed down to Kerens and Neidringhaus, with the chances at this time favoring the latter.

BALLS BREAK HARD FOR HIM IN COURT

Perhaps Billiardist Peterson Forgot to Chalk Cue, at Any-rate, He Lost Suit.

DR. C. E. MICHELS' SHOT WON

He Nursed Ivories and Proved an Alibi in Action for $85.50 for Cue Lessons.

Dr. Charles E. Michel sprung a surprise shot upon Expert Billiardist Charles C. Petersen in Justice Hanley's court and won the match.

The justice decided that Dr. Michel does not owe Petersen $85.50 for teaching him how to put the proper English upon the ivories.

This was a pretty little legal set-to between men who had matched skill and touch against one another many times at a billiard table. Petersen thought to run out on the oculist, but Dr. Michel came out of a tight place and won the match with a fine place shot.

He contended that he was in another place on some of the dates when Petersen claimed to have been teaching him billiards in St. Louis, and the court called the shot fair and gave him the decision.

Dr. Michel is an elderly gentleman and a member of a little coterie whose diversion is billiards. They sometimes have little tournaments among themselves, and Dr. Michel is a sort of Frank Ives in the circle.

Petersen is one of the well-known billiardists of the city. He was for a time manager of Hall's billiard parlor at Eighth and Olive streets, and oftentimes Dr. Michel dropped in there and took him on for a little measuring up of their separate skills. The popular impression was that Petersen was good enough to make the doctor pay for it.

Some time ago Petersen rather surprised the billiard fraternity by filing in Justice Hanley's court a bill for 87 billiard lessons, which he alleged to have given the doctor at $1.50 per lesson.

This gave the billiardists of the city a flutter. They had thought of the doctor as paying for his little goes with Petersen, but they had not thought of him paying for them in just that way.

When the case came to trial a few days ago Petersen told the court an interesting story. He said that Dr. Michel had come to him last spring and told him that they were to have a little tournament—the doctor and his friend. Petersen says the doctor was a little anxious about the result of the tournament and wanted to put himself in the hands of an expert who could show him how to do it. In other words, the doctor, according to Peterson, wanted to "put it on" his friends, and he was willing to devote some time and money to getting fit.

Petersen went on to say that, acting upon this information, he put the doctor through the paces of fancy billiards, showing him how to nurse the balls, how to break them, how to do didoes that make a billiard ball almost human, and how to draw them and drive them until the cue became a veritable magician's wand.

After which, Petersen says, the doctor went into the tournament with his friends and put them all over the hill, becoming the sole and proud possessor of the prize—and Petersen never saying a word.

The doctor appeared in his own defense and made a denial. He said he had not employed Petersen as instructor, and said it in a way to indicate that the idea of Petersen showing him how to play billiards was one joke.

He admitted that he had gone to Petersen to get pointers on the game, but claimed to have been assured by the expert that the pointers would cost nothing, the policy of the hall being to encourage anyone interested. He also stated that after some weeks of playing together, in which time the doctor says he paid for the use of the tables, Petersen asked a $50 loan, which the doctor says it was not convenient for him to make at the time.

It was then the doctor made his place shot. Taking the itemized bill of the expert, he pointed out that in the time from June 28 to July 17, in which period Petersen claimed by the bill to have given him several lessons in St. Louis, he was in another place—namely, at Lake Minoqua, Wis., and that in all that time he was doing fancy stunts with a fishing pole and had no thought of billiards.

Justice Hanley considered that the doctor had proved a good and sufficient alibi, and decided the suit against Petersen.

Dr. Michel talked of the case to the Post-Dispatch. He says he is a member of a little club which plays billiards and that he has taken lessons from Maggilo and Frank Day. Last spring, he says, he was told by two of his friends, Messrs. Andrews and Colver, that if he would go to Petersen the expert would brush his game up a little. The doctor says he plays billiards to win, mostly, and he went to Petersen in the hope that the expert would show him a trick or two that would enable him to hold his own, at least, with some half-dozen fans in the club who were making things pretty warm for him in the way of paying for games. He says the conditions were understood and that the bill was an afterthought, growing out of the request for the $50 loan.

COLORADO ELECTION TO BE TRIED HERE

Application for Habeas Corpus to Be Heard in St. Louis on Dec. 10.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 30.—Through the medium of a petition of Michael Dowd, who deposes that he has been illegally deprived of his liberty by the Supreme Court of Colorado, the election contest of Denver, Col., was brought before the United States Circuit Court of Appeals today.

Attorney F. T. Richardson of Denver presented the petition of Mr. Dowd to Walter H. Sanborn, presiding judge of the court, sitting in chambers, and asked for a writ of habeas corpus for the plaintiff Dowd, claiming that the Supreme Court of Colorado had exceeded its authority in committing Dowd and incidentally a number of others, to jail for contempt of court, in connection with the election contests.

The state of Colorado, through Attorney-General Miller, wired Judge Sanborn that it desired to be heard in the matter, and after Mr. Richardson had stated his side of the case in presenting the petition, Judge Sanborn made an order setting Dec. 10 as the day for a hearing of the case on its merits before the court sitting en banc at St. Louis.

CARS TO BE WARM WHEN FAIR IS OVER

General Manager McCulloch Says Stoves Will Be Put in "Right Away."

Those who came near freezing solid in the United Railway's cars Wednesday may charge their shivers up to the World's Fair. Capt. Robert McCulloch, general manager, says the Fair is to blame for the cold cars.

Acting on the motto that it is better to do one thing well than two things half as well, the United Railways management has decided that its first duty lies in getting people home from the Fair, and the duty of keeping passengers warm has been deferred until after everybody shall have been landed at home on the last day of the Fair.

But there's a good time coming for them that ride on street cars. The cars are going to be heated, and the half-congealed passengers are to be thawed out. The Fair closes Thursday night, and Capt. McCulloch says that the stoves are going to be put in "right away" after that.

"The stoves have not been put in yet," said Capt. McCulloch Wednesday, "because of the inconvenience they would be in cars crowded with World's Fair patrons. They are all in readiness, and as soon as the Fair is over they will be put in."

He was asked how long it would take, and said it wouldn't take any time at all.

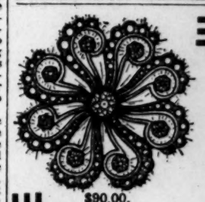

He was asked if the good news might be proclaimed that the cars would be heated by the last of the week.

"The stoves will be put in right away," he said.

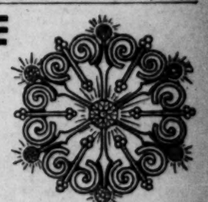

He would not fix a boundary to the assurance, but he said it as if he mant that it would be ever so quick.

The Suburban daylight cars were warmed for the first time Wednesday morning. Owl cars have been heated for several days.

The Suburban company does not use stoves. It heats its cars with invisible electric heaters, set under the seats. Therefore no standing room is lost, and as many strap passengers can be accommodated while the heat is on as while it is off.

BANQUET IS GIVEN IN CHARRED RUINS

Missouri World's Fair Commissioners and Hostesses Guests of Exhibitors.

One of the most unique functions in the seven months' history of the World's Fair was the banquet given by the Missouri exhibitors at the Fair to the members of the Missouri commission and the hostesses in the charred and ruined walls of the formerly beautiful state building, Tuesday night.

The occasion had been planned by the exhibitors before the Missouri building burned Nov. 13, and when the fire was over and the walls remained, their beauty destroyed and their grandeur surrendered to flame, the plan was not changed.

American flags and bunting draped the walls of the art room, the least damaged by the fire, and the scene was made brilliant by many electric lights. Oil stoves heated the room and World's Fair colors covered the glassless windows. Each guest received as a souvenir a miniature "Missouri book," containing the menu, the names of hosts and hostesses, and autographs of the guests.

President M. T. Davis, Lyman F. Parker, J. H. Hawthorne, B. H. Bonfoey, D. P. Stroup and others responded to toasts.

$100 reward will be paid to detectives, police officers or citizens for the arrest and conviction of any person or persons cutting or destroying electric wire installed in any building. POST-DISPATCH DAILY RECORD OF DOINGS IN THE MARKET AND FINANCIAL WORLD

HEAVY BUYING LIFTS HIGH-PRICED ISSUES

St. Paul, Louisville & Nashville, New York Central and Pennsylvania Are the Pronounced Feature of the Day's Trading and Score Liberal Advances.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—Prices opened highly irregular on Wall street this morning, special stocks declining and advancing in a confusing manner. The tendency of the general list was hard to discern in the conflicting movements, but in the majority of cases the opening quotations were slightly lower.

Little if any change is apparent in the general situation over night, but several features of importance to special stock issues have developed. The decision of the courts deciding that the Metropolitan Street Railways Co. and the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Co. must exchange transfers at the intersections on all leased lines is taken as a temporary bear card on the traction issues involved. The death of one of the leading interests in the Rock Island may also have a tendency to check temporarily the bull demonstration in the shares represented.

Sentiment on the street is mixed in the face of a lower range of values from the London market and the expectations of a poor bank return for the present week. The tendency to advance the high-priced issues, in which the public have little interest and of which the floating supply is limited, while the more active issues are pressed for sale, has created an uneasy feeling, as the manipulation in these issues is so apparent, and no news of an important nature bearing on the properties concerned is announced to justify the movement. The trading element is at present arrayed on the declining side of the prices on the theory that the present abnormal advance justifies a reaction.

A highly irregular market was experienced in the second on the circulation of many rumors involving special properties. The coal-carrying roads were the center of a strong bull demonstration, and in these issues pronounced gains were recorded. Reading was the strongest feature of this class, and, on enormous purchases, crossed 78 at 11 o'clock. The excellent statement of this company submitted yesterday, together with the revival of the rumors of an early dividend on this stock, were given as the cause for the absorption noted. The coal trade at the present time is also showing up in a highly favorable manner, and this is being reflected in an active demand for the stocks benefited. The Norfolk & Western officials state that at the present time the traffic of the property in the coal line is the largest known in the history of the company for this period of the year.

The steel issues, in the face of the strength displayed in certain sections of the rail list, were heavily pressed for sale and ruled sharply below the closing figures of yesterday all through the morning trading. The selling was attributed largely to profit-taking sales, as the reports received from the principal steel and iron centers were of a highly favorable character.

It is unofficially announced that the Lackawanna Steel Co. will agree to accept 15 per cent as its proportion of steel rails, in conjunction with a percentage of structural steel plates. This being the largest of the independent companies this action would remove the uncertainty regarding the course of the independent companies, as regards the price of rails for 1905, on which the steel-rail pool will shortly act, and dispose of for the coming year the possibility of trouble between the independent companies and the United States Steel Corporation. Rumors have been prevalent for some days past that the Lackawanna company was to be absorbed by the United States Steel Co., but this has been emphatically denied by the officials of the company interested.

The selling in the steel issues was still apparent at the noon period, and this tended to check the advance noted in other quarters of the list. Money remains in the neighborhood of 3½ per cent. Sales to noon, 709,000.

The selling pressure in the United States Steel issues relaxed after the noon hour and under the influence of a vigorous buying movement in the common stock that carried it fractionally above the high point of yesterday the general list made a complete recovery and in nearly all instances established sharp gains for the session. The high-priced issues were again the most conspicuous features of the movement and Pennsylvania, New York Central, Louisville & Nashville, and St. Paul came in for pronounced gains. The low-priced issues were for the time neglected and the price changes in this class were insignificant.

Commission houses were liberal purchasers of the granger and coaler shares and Chicago houses were large reported as heavy buyers on balance.

Little if any news of importance with a direct bearing on the securities market was forthcoming to account for the special movements noted in certain quarters of the list, but many rumors are again in circulation involving both the local traction companies and the leading railway systems of the West.

Prices weakened perceptibly in the last few minutes of the trading under the influence of a drive against United States Steel preferred that carried it down close to the low point of the morning. Money loaned as high as 4 per cent and the close was furiously active and irregular on the general list with the exception of the specialties showed little change from yesterday.

Cotton Was Stronger.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—Selling was again heavy at the opening, mainly by local traders, led by Hagedorn and Wells, prominent operators identified with the bear side for some time. Declines of 6 to 8 points in Liverpool futures and ⅛d in spots, the market for latter still dull, and estimates for 65,000 bales at the ports, against 45,800 bales a week ago and 54,000 bales a year ago, were the bearish influences. Traders also looked for the ginners' report issued today to show as much ginned to November 14 as the total ginned last season, or in excess of 10,000,000 bales. The market weakened so strong the selling, but at the decline there was good buying on belief that present prices discount figures gin report would show, and that good reaction in order. The ginners' figures of 9,786,000 bales were construed as bullish and the buying became strong that 15 to 20 points advance made.

WHEAT AGAIN OPENS HIGHER

Bullish Argentine News, Drouth and Cold Weather and Small Receipts the Factors.

Between rainy weather in the Argentine and none at all in these United States, with Valentine buying in Chicago, which meant Armour manipulation of the wheat shorts, speculative markets received quite a boost today, all domestic centers advancing, here the gain about 1c for the day. Getting away from December deliveries and hammering by a milling broker caused that option to break ⅝c, but recovered that loss and ½c more as quick as selling let up. Sentiment locally was generally bullish and buying consequently favored, largely in the belief that Armour would force a further advance, which would be when shorts covered. Light receipts and better milling inquiries exerted an influence also. Weather conditions did also. Coarse grains were dull and uninteresting from a speculative standpoint. Fine weather for grading new corn and an expected large movement favors the bears, but export limits appear to have been reached. Cash oats are advancing on inadequate offerings.

WHEAT—Majority of local traders inclined strongly towards the buying side this morning and receiving encouragement from Chicago—Minneapolis and New York were lower—they came in and snapped up the rather meager offerings, paying ⅜c advance shortly after opening. May opened with sales at $1.10½ to $1.10¾ and sold up to $1.11. December sold at $1.07¾ and later $1.07⅞ bid. July sold at 95⅜c and then bid up to 95⅝c. Argentine news was bullish, affecting Liverpool, which opened ⅛d lower on yesterday's weakness in America, but advanced ⅜@⅝d on good buying and bad reports from the Argentine, though easing off later in general liquidation of December, due to expectations of large deliveries. Paris opened ½c higher. Continued dry weather in winter wheat sections, with much lower temperatures, created uneasiness over our own crop prospects, and light receipts—32,200 bu in here, against 112,400 bu one year ago—had a bullish influence, Northwestern receipts also smaller—543 cars, against 709 last year.

Settlement of 425,000 bu December rung out so many contracts that it weakened the market, leading to so much selling of that option, mainly to avoid deliveries Friday, that the price went to $1.07⅛, or 3½c below May. Latter did not sell below $1.10⅝@1.10¾ and later advanced on buying excited by rallies elsewhere and damage reports to $1.11⅜. July was bid up to 96⅝@96¾c without sellers. December sold up to $1.08 after selling pressure off. Closing cables reported Liverpool unchanged to ⅝d lower, London and Antwerp unchanged, Berlin ⅛c off and Budapest 1⅜c higher. Primary receipts were 889,000 bu, against 1,287,000 bu one year ago, and the shipments 776,000 bu, against 729,000 bu last year. Clearances in flour (no wheat) were 44,500 bu.

A further advance made subsequently, following Chicago where Armour manipulation in control. Buying locally was much better than the selling and May sold up to $1.11¾, back to $1.11⅜@1.11½ and closing at $1.11½@1.11⅝. December sold up to and closed at $1.08¼. July sold at 96½c and that bid.

Cash market—Steady for samples. Offerings small and little good milling wheat. Such sold readily, where off grades dull. From store 44,000 bu No. 2 red for shipment, terms not given. By sample delivered—No. 2 at $1.13½ local; No. 3 red at $1.04@1.05 for dope to $1.08@1.08½ and choice worth $1.11; No. 4 at 99½c for dope to $1.06; No. 2 hard at $1.10; No. 3 hard at $1.05@1.07½; No. 4 hard at $1@1.04.

CORN—A firm market notable this morning though a very quiet one, so slight was speculative interest. Receipts were disappointing, only 32,700 bu. having come in, though a year ago but 20,800 bu. Weather conditions continued excellent for hardening the new crop and improving its grading. Liverpool opened unchanged to ¼d lower on larger American offers, but ruled steady later owing to strength in spot. Large sales for export reported yesterday were confirmed. Only trading locally was in Dec., which opened firm at 45⅝c and sold at 45⅝@45¾c.

Dullness continued the chief feature of the local future market and May sold ⅛c lower at 43⅝c, but subsequently market strengthened by advances in other markets and December bid up to 44⅞c and May to 43¾@43⅞c. Primary receipts were 600,000 bu, against 319,000 bu one year ago, and shipments 528,000 bu, against 182,000 bu last year. Clearances were 21,000 bu.

Broomhall cables that several private cables from the Argentine state the wet weather has threatened serious damage to the wheat crop in the northern part of the country. Inglis, who helped kill (?) the northwestern crop this year, is said to be in the Argentine for the Minneapolis house that Jones, also of crop-killing fame, is also connected with. GRAIN MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH

CHICAGO, Nov. 30.—Wheat was firm today on decreased receipts and light offerings. December opened ⅛c lower to ⅛c higher, at $1.06¼ to $1.06⅝, and advanced to $1.07¼. May was ⅛@⅛c lower to ⅛@¼c higher, at $1.08¼ to $1.08⅝, and sold up to $1.08⅞. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 567 cars, against 846 cars a year ago.

December corn opened ⅛@⅜c lower, at 48c to 48⅛c, and held around 48@48⅛c. May opened unchanged to a shade lower, at 45⅝@45½c to 45⅜c, and held steady at 45⅜c.

DONOVAN COMMISSION CO. ON THE MARKETS.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 30.—I may have been a little previous, but my tip to buy wheat on the break was straight goods, and the rise today proved it was a good thing. There have been so many bearish conditions that appeal to speculation and make sales look right that manipulation with Armour at its head has easy work rounding up a large workable shortage in the market and giving the bears the rush act. That's the stunt that's on now. The weather clerk is on his staff and giving South America too much of a surplus and North America deficit of water, strange to say, Kentucky suffering most. As the line of shorts that's being worked is a big one, I expect to see a further rise in price. If there's a flare-up, would begin to turn loose some sales. Corn looks strong to me, and expect to see higher figures made. Not enough is coming from the farms and foreigners are after it. Think it a buy on soft spots. Oats should be sold on hard spots. They need more demand to reduce the visible. HARRY REED.

Parks	500,000

The bill authorizing the issuance of bonds to the amount of $9,000,000 for the erection of new public buildings, improving the sewer system, and for the park fund and fire department passed the City Council by the unanimous vote of the nine members present at Tuesday night's meeting.

It will go immediately to the House of Delegates. If it meets with favorable action there it will be sent at once to the mayor for his signature, and be presented for the approval of voters at the city election April 4, 1905.

There were two amendments to the measure before its passage. One took $500,000 from the $2,975,000 originally appropriated for the courts, jail building and police headquarters. The other created a fund for the purchase and improvement of parks.

The general scheme includes the establishment of a court bounded by Twelfth and Fourteenth streets and Olive street and Clark avenue, in which nearly all the proposed new public buildings would be erected. The sum of $500,000, it was estimated, would be necessary for properly parking this court. None of this sum, it is stated, could be used for the restoration of Forest Park, as was at first proposed.

Of the $9,000,000 appropriated in the ordinance, the insane asylum would receive $1,000,000 for the construction and reconstruction of buildings and for the purchase of sites. The fire department will receive $230,000. There is also provided an appropriation of $2,475,000 for the construction of a building to replace the Four Courts, to provide new headquarters for the police department, a new jail and new court rooms.

For the improvement of the sewerage system, $2,000,000 is appropriated. For the extension of King's highway boulevard bridge over Mill Creek valley, $2,000,000 is appropriated, with the expectation of making King's highway one of the finest boulevards in the country.

The Council will meet again Friday when the salary appropriation bill will be taken up.

CATARRH

Gentlemen:—I wrote you some time ago, giving you an account of my sufferings with an awful case of Catarrh. I had all the symptoms that accompany this disease, such as mucus dropping in the throat, a constant desire to hawk and spit, feeling of dryness in the throat, cough and spitting upon rising in the morning, scabs forming in the nose, which required much effort to blow out; sometimes causing the nose to bleed and leaving me with a sick headache. I had thus suffered for five years. As soon as I heard from you, I commenced to take S. S. S. as you advised, and after I had taken three large bottles, I noticed a change for the better. Thus encouraged, I continued to take it, and in a short while was entirely cured.

224 Randolph St., Richmond, Va. JUDSON A. BELLUM.

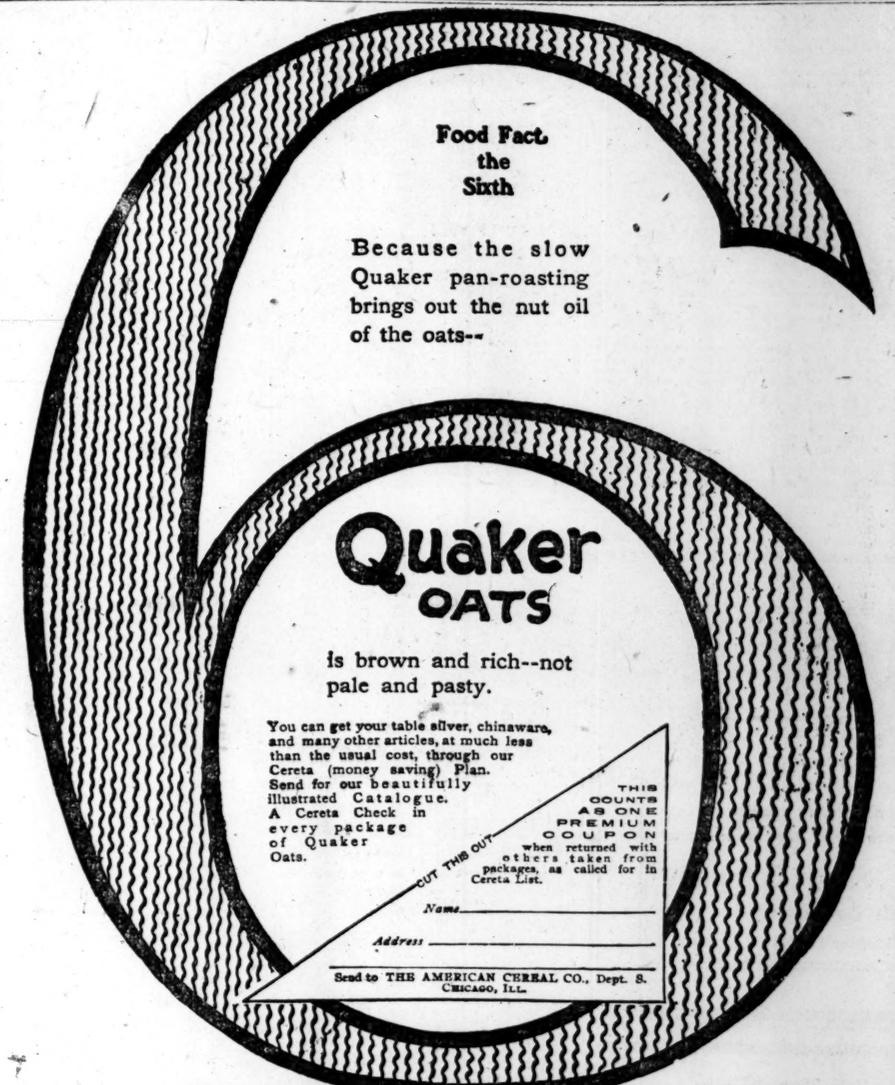

I contracted Catarrh and suffered terribly with it for 25 years. It was so bad that I had lost my hearing, sense of taste, as well as being nearly blind. I tried various medicines and specialists, spending a large sum of money with them, but with no perceptible results, so I abandoned all other remedies and doctors and began using your S. S. S. I took three large bottles and one small bottle, when much to my joy I found myself a well man. All my senses were fully recovered, and after fifteen years I am happy to relate that I have never had the slightest return of the ailment. I am now 75 years old and enjoy good health for my age. I cheerfully and gratefully recommend S. S. S. as the remedy that cured me of Catarrh.

Pordyce, Ark. L. S. LOCHRIDGE.

If winter is to be dreaded for its snows, icy, cutting winds and damp, unpleasant weather, it is more to be dreaded because it brings with it the most annoying and disgusting of diseases—Catarrh. The changed condition of the weather brings on "bad colds" which irritate the inner skin and tissues, and they secrete an unhealthy matter that is absorbed by the blood and scattered all through the system in its circulation, and at the first sign of winter the patient begins to "hawk and spit." All the mucous membranes and tissues of the body are affected by this disease, and the filthy, poisonous matter finds its way to every part of the body, making the sufferer dull and half sick all the time. The head and eyes have blinding aches, the stomach bloats, the hearing is often affected, and in its worse forms the soft bones of the nose and head are destroyed. Local applications such as sprays, washes and inhalations can do no more than give temporary relief, because the blood is constantly circulating through the system loaded with these filthy catarrhal poisons, and it must be purified and cleansed before a cure can be effected. S. S. S., a purely vegetable remedy, cures Catarrh by its invigorating, purifying action on the blood, and the catarrhal poisons are carried off through the proper channels. S. S. S. makes the blood rich and strong, and as it circulates through the system it carries healthful properties to the organs and tender tissues, the unhealthy secretions cease, and the whole system is renewed and built up by it. Don't let a "bad cold" become chronic Catarrh, but at the first symptom begin the use of S. S. S. and fortify the system against it. Our book on The Blood will be mailed free, and our physicians will give special advice to all catarrh sufferers who write, without charge.

THE BEER THAT CHEERS

Sickness rarely comes to homes that use Liquozone. And no one can keep well without it. Won't you try a bottle—free?

Liquozone is not only for sick people. Millions of well people use it to keep well. Nothing else in the world is so good for you—so vitalizing. Nothing else can ward off germ attacks.

Every day in every family there is something for Liquozone to do. There is headache to be stopped by it, a cold to be warded off, a wound to be healed. Drinking water is purified by it; stomach and bowel troubles are instantly ended; languor is at once overcome. When you don't feel well, Liquozone will usually do more than anything else for you. And it will save nearly all of your sickness. For your own sake, let us show you what a constant, what a wonderful help it is.

We Paid $100,000

For the American rights to Liquozone. We did this after testing the product for two years, through physicians and hospitals. After proving, in thousands of difficult cases, that Liquozone destroys the cause of any germ disease.

Liquozone has, for more than 20 years, been the constant subject of scientific and chemical research. It is not made by compounding drugs, nor with alcohol. Its virtues are derived solely from gas—largely oxygen gas—by a process requiring immense apparatus and 14 days' time. The result is a liquid that does what oxygen does. It is a nerve food and blood food—the most helpful thing in the world to you. Its effects are exhilarating, vitalizing, purifying. Yet it is a germicide so certain that we publish on every bottle an offer of $1,000 for a disease germ that it cannot kill. The reason is that germs are vegetables; and Liquozone—like excess of oxygen—is deadly to vegetal matter.

There lies the great value of Liquozone. It is the only way known to kill germs in the body without killing the tissues, too. Any drug that kills germs is a poison and it cannot be taken internally. Every physician knows that medicine is almost helpless in any germ disease.

Germ Diseases.

These are the known germ diseases. All that medicine can do for these troubles is to help Nature overcome the germs and such results are indirect and uncertain. Liquozone attacks the germs, wherever they are. And when the germs which cause a disease are destroyed, the disease must end, and forever. That is inevitable.
